

Program

Introduction and Welcome

Ghoóch Tlâ (Colleen) James (Carcross/Tagish First Nation) to give opening prayer.

Claire Herbert (Co-Chair United Nations Academic Impact Hub for Sustainable Development Goal 6, University of Manitoba) to introduce the event and the importance of Indigenous peoples in sustainable water governance.

Keynote Speeches

- Aimée Craft, University Research Chair Nibi miinawaa aki inaakonigewin: Indigenous governance in relationship with land and water, University of Ottawa/Decolonizing Water, Canada.
- Tania Martinez, Member of Steering Committee, Coalition of Indigenous Peoples Food System.

Panel Discussion

- Myrle Ballard, Assistant Professor and Indigenous scholar, University of Manitoba and Director of Indigenous Science, Environment and Climate Change Canada.
- Ghoóch Tlâ* (Colleen) James, Carcross/Tagish First Nation
- Taylor Galvin, Anishinaabekwe, Brokenhead Ojibway Nation, University of Manitoba
- Jewel Davies, Carcross/Tagish First Nation.
- Phoolman Chaudhary, Chairperson, Asian Indigenous International Network, Global Steering Committee Member of Indigenous Peoples at IFAD.
- Rajan Humagain, Himalayan Peace Foundation.

Moderated by Nicole Wilson, Assistant Professor, United Nations Academic Impact Hub for Sustainable Development Goal 6, University of Manitoba

Q&A

Call to action and outcomes

Closing

Ghoóch Tlâ (Colleen) James (Carcross/Tagish First Nation) to give closing prayer.