• Collaborative trips
• Sabbatical
Who can travel on research grants?

• Grantee
• Research personnel
• Students working with grantee
• Visiting researchers
Travel Expense Guideline

What expenses are eligible?

• Lowest logical airfare or cost of land travel up to the cost of airfare

• Meals or per diem (See policy for per diem rates and regulations)

• Mileage (See policy for rates)

• Entry visa fee for grantees and/or research personnel when required for the purpose of research
Travel Expense Guideline

What expenses are non-eligible?

• Passport and immigration fees

Travel Expense Guideline

Common pitfalls

• Travel claim not comprehensive (missing airfare, accommodation, transportation, meals or an explanation for lack thereof)
• Missing detailed purpose of the trip i.e. direct link to research
• Missing required/appropriate approval for exceptions
  - business class airfare (VP); also requires a copy of the journal entry transferring the price differential of business class airfare and lowest logical airfare to an operating FOP or a copy of the UM cash receipt showing the reimbursement to the research FOP if price differential is personal
  - booking outside of Concur/CWT (VP)
  - claiming more than the daily meal/per diem allowance (+$25 Supervisor, +$50 Dean or AVP or VP)
Travel Expense Guideline

Common pitfalls cont’d

• Failing to mention if airfare total include seat selection fee
• Failing to mention if personal reward points were used for upgrades
• Claiming more than 3 meals per day (meals serve on flight and conference should be deducted from daily per diem allowance)
• Claiming of a combination of meals with receipt and per diem in the same day (refer to Travel Policy for details)
• Use of T&E card for supplies, equipment and non-travel related purchases; Missing explanation why purchase was not made using one of the University’s purchasing method

* Each claim should stand by itself and should answer the basic question of who, what, when, where and why *
Hospitality

Hospitality expenses
