HEALTH AND HEALING IN HAWAII:
Knowledge from Native Hawaiian Academic Physicians from the John A. Burns School of Medicine at the University of Hawaii

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 2017 • 2:30 - 4:00 PM
Frederic Gaspard Theatre • Basic Medical Sciences Building • Bannatyne Campus

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2017 • 10:00 - 11:30 AM
Migizii Agamik - Bald Eagle Lodge • Fort Garry Campus

Ongomiizwin-Indigenous Institute of Health and Healing invites students, faculty, staff to an exciting and informative discussion on traditional Native Hawaiian health and healing with special guests Dr. Dee-Ann Carpenter and Dr. Martina Kamaka.

Visiting from the John A. Burns School of Medicine at the University of Hawaii, they will share with us their knowledge and experience as Native Hawaiian physicians and educators. Both are involved in teaching cultural competency and Indigenous health to medical students and residents.

These presentations are made possible as part of the International Indigenous Academic Health Network (IIAHN). Please join us at either the Bannatyne or Fort Garry Campus for this exciting opportunity.

Dee-Ann L. Carpenter, MD
Assistant Professor, Department of Native Hawaiian Health, John A. Burns School of Medicine, University of Hawaii Clinical Division, Lau Ola Clinic

Martina L. Kamaka, MD
Associate Professor, Department of Native Hawaiian Health, John A. Burns School of Medicine, University of Hawaii Medical Education Division, Native Hawaiian Center of Excellence

umanitoba.ca/ongomiizwin