1. Includes all students regardless of high school graduation date.

Excludes students who were admitted but subsequently withdrew prior to end of course change period.

The Provincial Modernization of school boundaries was enacted in 2002-2003, reducing the number of school divisions to 37 from 54.

School divisions are no longer identified by number. Refer to footnotes on following table for amalgamation details.

2. Winnipeg Technical College was conceived as a divisional collaboration between the Louis Riel and Pembina Trails School Divisions.

On July 1, 2005 the Pembina Trails School Division will become the sole shareholding school division governing Winnipeg Technical College.

3. Helen Betty Osborne Ininiw Education Resource Centre opened in 2004. This new school replaces the former Norway House High School.

4. Includes Manitoba high schools that are no longer in existence, no longer offer grade 12 diplomas or operate out of province.
