Use the following checklist to ensure your application is complete. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

This scholarship will provide support for, among other things, the travel and accommodation expenses involved in the research which the recipient proposes to undertake. It is further meant to provide 'the freedom to explore contemporary design', and should show application in a Canadian context, especially in areas with the current mission and goals of the Faculty of Architecture. Travel must commence within 10 months of receipt of the award. Travel and publication must be completed prior to graduation.

- Enrolled full-time in the Faculty of Graduate Studies in any program offered through the Faculty of Architecture;
- Achieved a minimum grade point average of 3.5 based on the previous 60 credit hours (or equivalent) of study;
- Written proposal of 1,000 - 1,500 words that demonstrates a high level of writing skills and an ability to show the importance of the proposed research topic. Proposal must state the theme and scope of the proposed inquiry and a time-line of how the study will proceed
- Proposed budget for travel expenses
- Draft abstract for a publication-worthy paper
- Letter of reference from a academic reference
- Letter of reference from a character reference (cannot be submitted by a family member)
