AND ORAL CULTURE

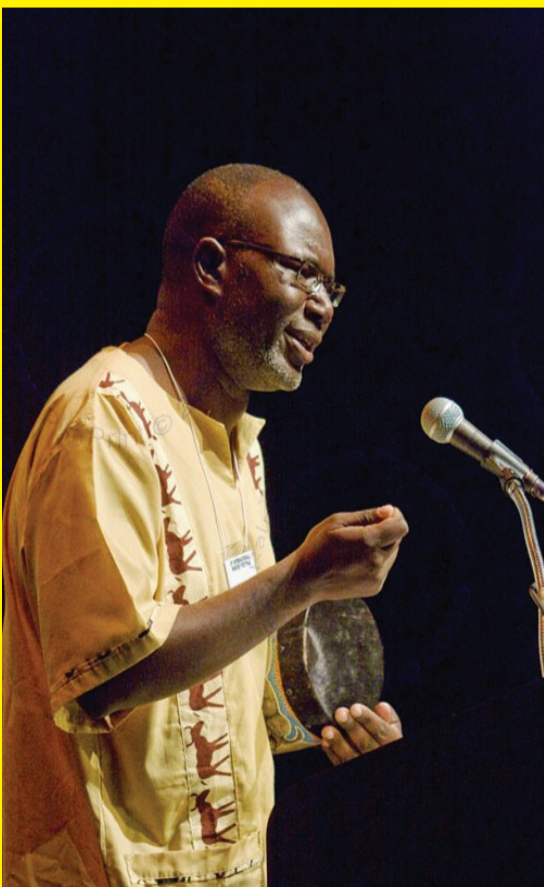

NEED HELP WITH YOUR CREATIVE WRITING OR STORYTELLING?

Overcoming a creative block?

Finding an audience?

COME SEE IGNATIUS MABASA

Fall 2010 Writer/Storyteller-in-Residence

IGNATIUS MABASA is an award winning novelist, children's writer and dub poet from Zimbabwe. Inspired by his grandmother, he is also a storyteller who began telling stories before he could write and has since shared them with audiences from Harare to San Francisco. An accomplished mentor for budding writers and storytellers, a champion of the Shona language and a lay preacher at his local church, Ignatius is the Deputy Director of the British Council in Zimbabwe. For more information about Ignatius, visit his website at www.pamabasa.com or visit www.umanitoba.ca/centres/ccwoc/.

For help with your creative writing or storytelling, please contact Ignatius at ccwocwir@cc.umanitoba.ca or at 480-1067 to arrange a FREE meeting with him.

Improve your work with an accomplished author and storyteller!

Writers and tellers of all levels are welcome!
