

WELCOMING ROBERTA KENNEDY

The U of M's Winter 2010 Writer/Storyteller-in-Residence

Please JOIN US for an EXCLUSIVE PERFORMANCE
by ROBERTA KENNEDY, as well as a reading by Visiting Fellow Niigonwedom James Sinclair

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 2010

2:30 p.m.

Aboriginal House -- Student Lounge -- 45 Curry Place
University of Manitoba Fort Garry Campus

Roberta Kennedy is a traditional Haida singer, drummer and storyteller, and one of Canada's leading Aboriginal performers. She has given hundreds of performances in nearly every province in Canada. She performs for children and adults at festivals, schools, universities, conferences, workshops, and on TV and radio. Roberta is also a Dene Culture teacher and teaches the Dogrib language to primary students. For more information about Roberta, visit her website at <http://sharkhouse.ca>.

Everyone welcome!
Reception to follow!

For further info, contact:
ccwoc@cc.umanitoba.ca
or 480-1065