POLICY AND DEATH: WHAT THE RIGHT TO DIE MEANS FOR LAWMAKERS, HEALTHCARE PROVIDERS AND CITIZENS

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2013 - 7:00 PM

With Dr. Peter Markesteyn, Dr. Verena Menec and Dr. Mary Shariff
Moderated by Prof. Arthur Schafer

With recent debate on the matter in the media, the court case in British Columbia and the proposed law in Quebec this is a relevant and important public policy matter to discuss. Come join us for an engaging conversation.

The Manitoba Institute for Policy Research is based in the department of Political Studies in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Manitoba. By engaging Manitobans and increasing access to policy experts in our community through the Citizen Series, the MIPR hopes to enhance the quality of public discourse in the province.

The Centre on Aging conducts and promotes research activities in aging at the universities in Manitoba and supports the education of students in aging. The Centre for Professional and Applied Ethics is firmly committed to the full, fair, and free discussion of all ethical issues and to the advancement of knowledge in this area.
