Building the Budget: Choices and Priorities

Wednesday, February 26, 2014 - 6:00 PM

SPEAKERS: Dr. Todd Scarth (History, University of Manitoba), Dr. Karine Levasseur (Political Studies, University of Manitoba) and David Woodbury (retired Associate Treasury Board Secretary)

Join us as Dr. Todd Scarth, David Woodbury and Dr. Karine Levasseur discuss the budgetary process. Our panel will provide insight on how the decisions surrounding government budgets are made, who is consulted and what concerns might be present throughout the process. This event will offer a rare opportunity to get an inside look at how the government budget is crafted.

The Manitoba Institute for Policy Research in based in the department of Political Studies in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Manitoba. The institute furthers debates and discussions on matters of public policy, administration, and governance both in Manitoba and across the country. By engaging Manitobans and increasing access to policy experts in our community through the Citizen Series, the MIPR hopes to enhance the quality of public discourse in the province.

$10 buys you Pizza and a Pint. The Policy is free.
