What noteworthy events have shaped the political scene? Join Richard Cloutier (CJOB), Steve Lambert (Canadian Press) and Mary Agnes Welch (Winnipeg Free Press) as they discuss the policies, people and events that have grabbed the headlines over the last half of 2014 and what we can expect from the first half of 2015.

The Manitoba Institute for Policy Research is based in the department of Political Studies in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Manitoba. The Institute furthers debates and discussions on matters of public policy, administration, and governance both in Manitoba and across the country. By engaging Manitobans and increasing access to policy experts in our community through the Citizen Series, MIPR hopes to enhance the quality of public discourse in the province.
