JOBS IN MANITOBA: QUESTIONS ABOUT THE FUTURE

Thursday, January 22nd, 2015 – 7:00 PM

LOCATION: McNally Robinson Atrium, Grant Park Mall, 1120 Grant Ave.

WITH: Mr. Tim Feduniw (Senior Manager, Economic Development Winnipeg), Ms. Jan Forster (Assistant Deputy Minister, Workforce Development & Income Support Division, Manitoba Jobs & the Economy) and Dr. Shauna MacKinnon (Urban and Inner City Studies, University of Winnipeg).

MODERATOR: Dr. Andrea Rounce (Political Studies, University of Manitoba).

Governments, businesses, and citizens all have roles to play in supporting skills development, education and workforce participation in Manitoba. How does government create a labour market strategy? What roles do business and civil society play in supporting and driving labour market development? What demographic factors are taken into consideration when developing these plans? How do we engage people facing persistent entry barriers in the workforce? How do we build a diversified workforce? Join us as our panel discusses the pertinent issues surrounding jobs in our province.

The Manitoba Institute for Policy Research is based in the Political Studies Department, in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Manitoba. The Institute seeks to improve public policy deliberations and capacity in Manitoba by initiating conversations and debate on current and emerging issues facing our province, by publishing original research, and by engaging with the post-secondary sector, citizens, governments and non-governmental organizations to support public policy dialogue in the broadest sense.

Free event. All are welcome!
