November 11th marks a day to remember the men and women who have served the military and Canada. As well, 2014 marks the 100th anniversary of the start of World War I and the 75th anniversary of Canada's entry into WII. As we embark on new combat missions, it is important that we evaluate the lessons that Canada has learned over the past century about war, how it has changed society, and what might be the future of war and the implications for Canada. Join our panel of experts for what is sure to be a lively discussion.

The Manitoba Institute for Policy Research is based in the department of Political Studies in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Manitoba. The Institute furthers debates and discussions on matters of public policy, administration, and governance both in Manitoba and across the country. By engaging Manitobans and increasing access to policy experts in our community through the Citizen Series, MIPR hopes to enhance the quality of public discourse in the province.

$10 buys you Pizza and a Pint. The Policy is free.
