UNDERSTANDING THE OUTCOME:

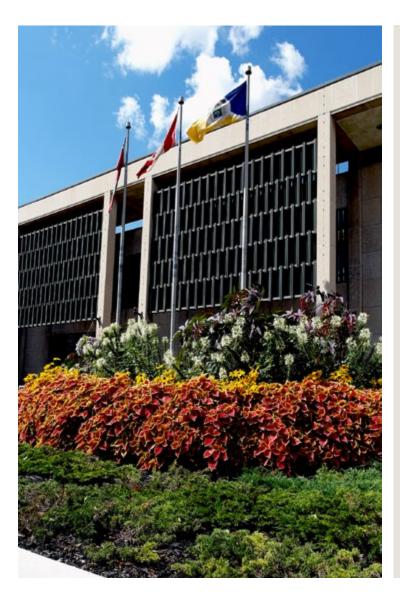

The Winnipeg Civic Election

Thursday, October 23rd, 2014 – 7:00 PM

LOCATION: McNally Robinson Atrium, Grant Park Mall, 1120 Grant Ave.

WITH: Dr. Jino Distasio (Director, Institute of Urban Studies - U of W),

Dr. Royce Koop (Political Studies, U of M) and Mary Agnes Welch (Winnipeg Free Press) | Moderated by Curtis Brown (Vice President, Probe Research Inc.)

Winnipeggers will vote for their municipal representatives on October 22nd. On the day after the election, we ask about the high and low points of the 2014 Winnipeg Municipal election campaign. Which interest group was the big winner on election night? What have we learned and what do the results mean for the future of Winnipeg? Join our panel of experts for an engaging debrief of the results and implications of the 2014 Winnipeg Municipal Election.

The Manitoba Institute for Policy Research is based in the Political Studies Department, in the Faculty of Arts at the University of Manitoba. The Institute seeks to improve public policy deliberations and capacity in Manitoba by initiating conversations and debate on current and emerging issues facing our province, by publishing original research, and by engaging with the post-secondary sector, citizens, governments and non-governmental organizations to support public policy dialogue in the broadest sense.

Free event. All are welcome!
