Faculty of Education Truth and Reconciliation Fellowship

Thomas Falkenberg and Angela Mueller have established an annually funded award to reward the academic achievements of graduate students pursuing research in the area of education for truth and reconciliation in the Faculty of Education at the University of Manitoba. The fellowship is valued at $5,000 each year for a three-year term. Beginning in 2019–2020 and ending in 2021–2022, one fellowship will be offered to a graduate student who:

- (1) is enrolled full-time or part-time in the Faculty of Graduate Studies in a Master's or Doctoral program in the Faculty of Education at the University of Manitoba;
- (2) has achieved a minimum degree grade point average of 3.0 (or equivalent) based on the previous 60 credit hours of study; and
- (3) is undertaking, or is about to undertake, thesis research in the area of education for truth and reconciliation.

Candidates will be required to submit their curriculum vitae, an abstract (maximum 250 words) outlining their research goals in the area of education for truth and reconciliation, and a letter from their thesis advisor confirming that they are undertaking, or are about to undertake, thesis research in the required area.

If in any year, in the opinion of the selection committee, there are two equally qualified eligible students, the award may be split to offer $2,500 to each student. A recipient may re-apply for the Fellowship in the subsequent year.

For each year the Fellowship is not awarded, the final year of the Fellowship will be extended by one year.

The Vice-Provost (Graduate Education) and Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies (or designate) will ask the Dean of Faculty of Education (or designate) to name the selection committee for this award.

This agreement may be amended by the mutual consent of the donor (or designate) and the University of Manitoba. All such amendments shall be in writing. In the absence of the donor (or designate), and providing all reasonable efforts have been made to consult, the Board of Governors of the University of Manitoba has the right to modify the terms of this award if, because of changed conditions, it becomes necessary to do so. Such modification shall conform as closely as possible to the expressed intention of the donor in establishing the award.
