

You're invited to the Engineering Education Showcase!

New date! Friday May 17th, 2024

This event is an opportunity for members of the Price Faculty of Engineering to come together to share the innovative practices happening in our classrooms and engage in discussions about teaching and learning.

Attend presentations from your colleagues about course design and pedagogy

Take part in roundtable discussions around current issues and topics in engineering education

Please fill out this form to indicate your interest in attending and/or presenting.
We hope to see you there!

Presenters
needed! No idea too big or too small!
