“Mises en scène de la féminité: ingénues et précieuses”

This presentation will deal primarily with women's education and the transition from the private to the public sphere in women's writing in 16th and 17th century France. The talk will be in French, but Dr. Cazes can answer questions or responses in English. 10-11:15 am, 207 Human Ecology.

Dr. Cazes is an outstanding scholar and teacher of the Humanities and the Renaissance. More specifically, her research delves into the definitions and practices of humanism. She has won numerous awards for her research and outreach activities. For more information about this outstanding teacher and scholar, please go to this link:

http://www.uvic.ca/humanities/french/our-people/faculty/cazes-helene.php

https://upload.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/commons/3/31/Carte_du_tendre.jpg