Newsettes

LEUKEMIA VICTIM MAY RETURN SOON.

Although Leukemia Stricken Brisbane Accomplice to treatment for leukemia in New York that he may return soon to Winnipeg.

This is the latest word on the Brisbane boy who was flown to New York on Jan. 27 to get treatment and the last news received from the boy was that he was undergoing the operation and that he is doing well.

Polio Vaccine?

The Red Cross has on hand 200,000 doses of the Salk vaccine which is expected to arrive in Winnipeg at the end of the week and will be available to the public to order for their use.

WHITE CANE WEEK AIDS BLIND

The theme of this year's White Cane Week is: "White Cane Week: The Blind and the Canadian" by the Canadian Council of the Blind and the Canadian Institute for the Blind.

SAMPLES OF ART

Samples of arts and crafts are always in demand at the White Cane Week exhibition. The exhibition will be open from today until the end of the week at the Manitoba Federation of the Blind headquarters, 760 Main St. W. There will be a free admission and refreshments will be available.

Winnipegger Flies 8,000 Miles In 33 Hours

Mr. W. T. Riley, a Winnipegger, recently returned from a flight to Japan, where he spent three weeks. The flight took place during the last week of January and he returned to Winnipeg on Saturday evening.

Bridge Club Plans Pair Tournament

The Marion Bridge Club is planning a pair tournament for next month. Details will be announced later.

Travelling Comic

A travelling comic, W. F. Osborne, dies in his home in Toronto. He was 75 years old at the time of his death.

Famed 'U' Teacher W. F. Osborne Dies

Prof. W. F. Osborne, one-time professor at the University of Manitoba and renowned for his work in the field of education, died on March 17 in his home in Toronto at the age of 75.

Famed 'U' Teacher W. F. Osborne Dies

W. F. Osborne, one-time professor at the University of Manitoba and renowned for his work in the field of education, died on March 17 in his home in Toronto at the age of 75.

Credit Bureau

The Credit Bureau of Canada, a major financial institution, has opened a branch in Winnipeg. The branch is being managed by Mr. W. F. Osborne, the former professor at the University of Manitoba, who has been associated with the organization for several years.

Police Check Drivers In Hit-and-Run Search

Our police today continued their efforts to track down two hit-and-run vehicles that last week were involved in accidents in which a pedestrian and a bicyclist were injured.

Real Estate Board To Hear US Author

L. R. "P" Finlayson, a real estate agent, is scheduled to appear before the Real Estate Board on Monday in connection with an investigation into the sale of a property in the United States.

Travelling Comic

A travelling comic, W. F. Osborne, dies in his home in Toronto. He was 75 years old at the time of his death.