Broaden Your Horizon! Learn a language or dive into a Culture!

2017 / 2018

German Classes recommended for 1st year students

Department of German and Slavic Studies, University of Manitoba (course schedule subject to change without notice)

German Language Courses (Category A):

GRMN 1120: Beginning German (6) A01: MWF 9:30-10:20 (Finlay/James); A02: MWF 11:30-12:20 (Finlay/Richter); A03: MWF 12:30-13:20 (Heberger) (level A1)
Labs & Conversation (B01-B04): M 13:30-14:20; T 11:30-12:20, W 10:30-11:20, W 15:30-16:20
GRMN 2100: Intermediate German (6) A01: MWF 11:30-12:20 (James); A02: MWF 1:30-2:20 (Richter) (level A2) – or as travel course to Germany in July / August 2018 (Heberger)

For 1st year students who have already a good command of German:

German Literature, Culture and Applied Linguistics course conducted in German (Category B):

GRMN 2140: Exploring German Literature (3), MWF 9:30-10:20 (Winter 2018) (Heberger) class is conducted in German: Introduction to German Literature by discussing different literary genres; texts by Kafka, Mann, Brecht, Böll, Grass, etc. The class will extend the students’ German vocabulary, oral and written expression and comprehension. Prerequisite: Intermediate German.

For all 1st year students with an interest in German culture or literature: no knowledge of German required, no prerequisites, conducted in English, fulfills English writing requirement. Take both courses together and you have a six credit hour course!

German Literature, Culture and Applied Linguistics course conducted in English (Category C):

GRMN 1300: Masterpieces of German Literature in English Translation (3) MWF 10:30-11:20 (Winter 2018) (Richter), class is conducted in English, no prerequisites, fulfills English writing requirement. The course introduces students to representative works (prose, poetry, and drama) by German-speaking writers such as Goethe, Kleist, Thomas Mann, Kafka, and Rilke, with an emphasis on the ages of Classicism, Romanticism, and Modernism.
GRMN 2130: Introduction to German Culture from the Beginning to 1918 (3) MWF 10:30-11:20 (Fall 2017) (Richter), class is conducted in English, no prerequisites, fulfills English writing requirement. From the Romans to 1914; analyzes cultural texts (such as Tacitus, the saga of the Nibelungs, Luther & Goethe) in relation to the rise of the German Nation in the 19th century and its first “fall” in the 20th century.

Think also about doing your degree in German!!!

Available Degrees/ Programs: General Major, Double General Major, Minor, Honours Single, Honours Double, PreMA, MA

For more information contact the Department of German and Slavic Studies general office, 328 Fletcher Argue, 204-474-9370, or Dr. Alexandra Heberger 474-7867 alexandra.heberger@umanitoba.ca, Karin James 474-9571 (karin.james@umanitoba.ca); Rosemarie Finlay 474-8461 (rosemarie.finlay@umanitoba.ca), Dr. Lars Richter (lars.richter@umanitoba.ca)