POLISH PROGRAM

WINTER 2017 course

Love, Heroes and Patriotism in Contemporary Poland (3)
POL 1900 (Fall) Monday 2:30pm – 5:15pm

This course examines multi-faceted phenomenon of Romanticism by studying topics such as the Romantic hero, emotion, love, journey/travel, memory, death, the exotic, the irrational, national identity and political independence, mysticism, legends and folk culture. Further we will explore the many aspects of the evolution of Romantic ideals as reflected in contemporary Polish identity; the role of art and artist; the traditional ideals of love as well as its recent incarnation as urban fantasy of vampires and paranormal romance.

Information: Magdalena Blackmore phone 474 7866 or email magda_blackmore@umanitoba.ca