

The Goethe Institut Toronto

The Department of German & Slavic Studies serves as an Examination Center for levels A1-C2 of the Goethe-Institut and is working in partnership with the Goethe-Institut. The Goethe-Institut's own examinations are offered here and we offer language courses that prepare students for further language, culture and literature courses as well as prepare candidates for the exam. The examination procedure is under the direct control of the Goethe-Institut Toronto.

Goethe Institut examinations may be challenged without a course specifically preparing for it.

If you are interested in sitting one of the exams, please contact Karin James, 335 Fletcher Avenue, 204-474-9571 or by e-mail at Karin.James@umanitoba.ca
