Course Overview

This course examines cultural relations and cultural politics from a global historical perspective. We will consider “the cultural fronts” of post-1930s world history. We will inquire into the political, economic, social, and ideological frameworks of cultural production and cultural exchange, and study how these are part of World War II and the Cold War, as well as movements for national liberation, decolonization, and civil rights/human rights. In particular, we critically assess how different nations and societies mobilized culture as they promoted competing notions of democracy, identity, national liberation, and social organization.

The course focuses on the relationship between:
(a) cultural producers such as artists, musicians, filmmakers, and athletes;
(b) the organisations that fund and promote culture and cultural formations, including governments;
(c) the people who consume these products and the societies in which they live;
(d) the global political structures within which cultural products are produced, debated, and circulated.

We will be using examples drawn from the realms of film, sport, literature and art, dance and theatre, and music.

Class Format

This course includes lectures and class discussion. Students are encouraged to participate actively in the class by asking questions, discussing readings and documents, as well as working with classmates to better understand the course material. Students not comfortable with class discussion or small groups should meet with the instructor early in the term to discuss strategies and alternate arrangements, if appropriate.

Regular class attendance is mandatory.
Students should familiarize themselves with the University of Manitoba policies on withdrawal from classes.
http://umanitoba.ca/student/records/leave_return/695.html

Recording devices (audio, video, digital, etc) and photography are not allowed in the classroom, except as arranged through Student Accessibility Services. Electronic devices (laptops, tablets, etc) are permitted for note-taking and assigned classroom activities only. Students who are texting, viewing websites, emailing (and so on) are distracting to others; they are also behaving in a manner disrespectful to others in the classroom. Students violating these guidelines may be asked to leave the classroom.

Required Books
* Additional course readings are posted to UMLearn
* Some readings are available on-line and the URL is supplied in the syllabus

Assignments
Primary Source In-Class Assignment – 5% (January 17, 2020)
Preparation for and participation in designated discussion sessions – 10%
Essay #1 – 25% (min. 1500 words, due date: February 12, 2020)
Essay #2 – 30% (min. 1700 words, due date: March 30, 2020)
Final Exam – 30% (scheduled exam period: April 13-25, 2020)

Marking Scale
A+ 88-100%
A  80-87%
B+ 75-79%
B  70-74%
C+ 65-69%
C  60-64%
D  50-59%
F  0-49%

Primary Source In-Class Assignment
Primary sources are those items that are created at the time under study. They can include documents, diaries, newspaper articles, artifacts, and oral recordings, as well as cultural productions and paraphernalia. By looking at selected sources relevant to the week’s lecture, we will learn how to contextualize and analyze cultural sources. Students will hand-in their completed assignment at the end of class.
Preparation/Participation – Discussion Classes
Most Friday classes will be discussion sessions (see weekly schedule for specific dates). We will focus on: (a) analyzing primary documents related to the weekly topic; or (b) discussion of assigned secondary source readings.

The format for discussion classes will vary. Templates to help prepare for discussion classes will be available through UMLearn. Students are expected to have completed assigned readings prior to discussion classes and to bring the assigned reading and their notes to class.

Essays
Instructions for essays will be made available and discussed in class. It is the student’s responsibility to acquire the instructions if absent when they are first made available.

Essays must be handed in at the beginning of class on the due date. In addition to handing in a hard-copy of each essay assignment, students are required to submit a copy of each paper electronically through UM Learn (as a Word document). The filename for the document should be as follows: SURNAME Given name Assign # HIST 1260.

Final Exam (30%, during final exam period)
Information about the final exam will be provided in class. Students are required to write all exam answers in their own words. Verbatim reproduction of memorized text from on-line sources, the textbook, or other sources is not permitted. Unacknowledged use of the words of others in an essay or on an exam is plagiarism. Your understanding of the material is also much more evident when you express what you have learned in your own words, meaning that you will do much better on the exam when you write in your own words!

All work is due on the date specified. Exceptions will only be made when there are very compelling reasons and extenuating circumstances. Late work will be penalized by 2% per day after the due date, including weekends. Assignments received more than 7 days after the due date will not receive written feedback. All
Term work must be submitted by the last day of class for the semester (April 7, 2020).

Evaluative feedback will be provided prior to the voluntary withdrawal deadline of March 18, 2020.

Term work will be returned in class. Students who wish to appeal a grade given for term work must do so within 10 working days after the grade for the term work has been made available to them. Uncollected term work will be retained for 4 months following the end of the course. After this time, it will become the property of the Faculty of Arts and subject to confidential destruction.

Contacting the Instructor

If you have questions about course material or assignments – or just want to learn more—please ask me! You are welcome to raise questions and points of discussion in class. You may also meet with me during office hours (see page 1) or make an appointment. Email is another convenient option for short questions. I normally will reply to student emails within 24 hours.

Please note student emails are answered during regular University of Manitoba hours only (i.e. 8:30am to 4:30pm, Monday to Friday). This means if you send an email at 4:29pm on Friday, you will not receive a response until Monday. If you have not received a response after 24 hours (regular work days), please feel free to send a follow up email.

Academic Dishonesty

All University policies on academic integrity will be strictly applied. Academic integrity is essential to the learning process, as well as for the value of your degree at the University of Manitoba. During this course, students will be educated on academic conventions necessary to avoid plagiarism and other acts of academic dishonesty. Students are also encouraged to further their own understanding of academic integrity by visiting http://umanitoba.ca/student/academicintegrity/ and speaking to a student advocate if they need further advice.

Students should also familiarize themselves with the University's policies regarding academic dishonesty found in the ‘Academic Integrity’ section of the General Academic Regulations in the online Academic Calendar and Catalog and the Faculty of Arts regulation at: http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/student_resources/student_responsibilities_integrity.html; and with the detailed information at
The common penalty in Arts for plagiarism on a written assignment is a grade of F on the paper and a final grade of F (DISC) (for Disciplinary Action) for the course. For the most serious acts of plagiarism, such as purchase of an essay and repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department/program in Arts or from all courses taught in this Faculty.

The Faculty also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism or to other experts for authentication. The common penalty in Arts for academic dishonesty on a test or examination is F for the paper, F (DISC) for the course, and a one-year suspension from courses acceptable for credit in the Faculty. For more serious acts of academic dishonesty on a test or examination, such as repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five years from registration in courses taught in a particular department or program in Arts or from all courses taught in or accepted for credit by this Faculty.

Lecture Schedule and Assigned Readings
A detailed lecture schedule and assigned readings will be provided to students in class.

Student Resources
Academic Resources
You have access to several important resources to help you navigate your classes and university life more generally. There are writing tutors available to help you with your essays through the Academic Learning Centre (ALC): http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/. The History department will also make a writing tutor available exclusively to History students in the department on one day a week. More information about scheduling, etc., TBA.

The ALC page also has resources to help you with study skills, organization, as well as assistance for students using English as an Additional Language (EAL). Other issues, including accessibility services, workshops, and tips about academic integrity are addressed at the Student Advocacy Services webpage (http://umanitoba.ca/student/resource/student_advocacy/).
All of the above services can also be accessed under the heading of Student Resources on the Student Affairs website:

History students can also take advantage of the huge range of academic materials (including primary and secondary sources, as well as pages to help with writing and referencing) made available by the History subject librarian, tailored just for you! They are available on the Libraries page at this link: http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/history. Students who need research assistance can also schedule an appointment with a librarian through the website.

Student Counselling Centre
Contact SCC if you are concerned about any aspect of your mental health, including anxiety, stress, or depression, or for help with relationships or other life concerns. SCC offers crisis services as well as counselling.
http://umanitoba.ca/student/counselling/index.html

Student Support Case Management
Contact the Student Support Case Management team if you are concerned about yourself or another student and don’t know where to turn. SSCM helps connect students with on and off campus resources, provides safety planning, and offers other supports, including consultation, educational workshops, and referral to the STATIS threat assessment team. http://umanitoba.ca/student/case-manager/index.html

University Health Service
Contact UHS for any medical concerns, including mental health problems. UHS offers a full range of medical services to students, including mental health support.
http://umanitoba.ca/student/health/

Student Advocacy
Contact Student Advocacy if you want to know more about your rights and responsibilities as a student, have questions about policies and procedures, and/or want support in dealing with academic or discipline concerns.
