The U.S. Survey offers a sweeping view of the evolution of the United States from the period before European contact to the early 21st Century. Major themes include the political maturation of the United States, the centrality of race in understanding American history, the economic development of the nation, and the diversity of the American experience.

Students sometimes think of history as an endless list of dates and names. In this course, I would instead like you to think of history as a process, and to consider why things happened as they did. Anyone can look up the date of a battle or a piece of legislation on the internet – the challenge lies in explaining the significance of events, and considering the consequences of decisions made by historical actors. This course will also introduce you to the craft of the historian. We will look at primary materials to consider how we know what we know about the past. Assignments in the course will help students develop skills in research, formulating an argument, and writing. Lectures in the course will provide a framework of events, touching on the political, social, economic and cultural development of the nation.

Evaluation for the course will include:

Term 1
- Assignment 1 (750-1250 words; 3-5 pages) Early America 15% due October 24, 2019
- Assignment 2 (750-1250 words; 3-5 pages) Civil War 15% due November 26, 2019
- Midterm Test (in class) 10% December 8, 2019

Term 2
- Assignment 3 (1000-1500 words; 4-6 pages) Triangle Fire 15% due February 7, 2020
- Assignment 4 (1000-1500 words; 4-6 pages) Coming of Age in Mississippi 15% due March 26, 2020

Final exam during exam period 30%
The grade distribution will be as follows:
A+ = 88+                                            C+ = 65-69
A = 80-87                                            C = 60-64
B+ = 75-79                                          D = 50-59
B = 70-74                                            F = 49 and below

https://press.uchicago.edu/sites/buildingtheamericanrepublic/index.html

Each week, I will suggest chapters from Building the American Republic that correspond to that week’s lecture.

Academic Honesty
All written work submitted in this course must be original. The University’s regulations regarding plagiarism, cheating and impersonation are found in the section on “Academic Integrity” of the General Academic Regulations in the online Academic Calendar and Catalog the Faculty of Arts regulation (online at http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/student_resources/student_responsibilities_integrity.html) which reads:

>The common penalty in Arts for plagiarism on a written assignment is a grade of F on the paper and a final grade of F (DISC) (for Disciplinary Action) for the course. For the most serious acts of plagiarism, such as purchase of an essay and repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department/program in Arts or from all courses taught in this Faculty. The Faculty also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism or to other experts for authentication.
The common penalty in Arts for academic dishonesty on a test or examination is F for the paper, F (DISC) for the course, and a one-year suspension from courses acceptable for credit in the Faculty. For more serious acts of academic dishonesty on a test or examination, such as repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five years from registration in courses taught in a particular department or program in Arts or from all courses taught in or accepted for credit by this Faculty.

The last date for voluntary withdrawal from this course is January 17, 2020. Evaluation and feedback will be provided to you before this date.

Computers, Cellular Phones, Tablets, etc.
Studies have shown that taking notes by hand encourages students to make sense of the material, and allows you to better retain what you are learning. All phones must be on silent/vibrate mode and stored in pockets, bags or purses for the duration of the class. Texting, checking social media, instant messaging, and surfing the web are not appropriate behaviours in class. Engaging with social media not only is distracting for other students, but studies have shown that it detracts from your learning experience. It is challenging, but make an effort to focus on the lecture – the course will be more enjoyable, and you will do better in it!

Assignments and Late Policy
All written assignments should be typed and double spaced. Further details about written assignments will be provided in class. Pay close attention to due dates. Extensions will only be granted in exceptional circumstances. Papers are due in class on the date indicated. Late papers will be penalized 2.5% per day. Students who wish to appeal a grade given for term work must do so within 10 working days after the grade for the term work have been made available to them. Uncollected term work will become the property of the Faculty of Arts and will be subject to confidential destruction. Since this is a course that meets the University Senate's W requirement, students must pass the requirement for written English in order to pass the course.

Student Resources – Where to go if you need help!

Academic Resources
You have access to several important resources to help you navigate your classes and university life more generally. There are writing tutors available to help you with your essays through the Academic Learning Centre (ALC): http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/. The History department will also make a writing tutor available exclusively to History students in the department on one day a week. More information about scheduling, etc., TBA.

The ALC page also has resources to help you with study skills, organization, as well as assistance for students using English as an Additional Language (EAL). Other issues, including accessibility services, workshops, and tips about academic integrity are addressed at the Student Advocacy Services webpage
All of the above services can also be accessed under the heading of Student Resources on the Student Affairs website: http://umanitoba.ca/student/studentlife/index.html.

History students can also take advantage of the huge range of academic materials (including primary and secondary sources, as well as pages to help with writing and referencing) made available by the History subject librarian, tailored just for you! They are available on the Libraries page at this link: http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/history. Students who need research assistance can also schedule an appointment with a librarian through the website.

Student Counseling Centre
Contact SCC if you are concerned about any aspect of your mental health, including anxiety, stress, or depression, or for help with relationships or other life concerns. SCC offers crisis services as well as counseling. http://umanitoba.ca/student/counselling/index.html

Student Support Case Management
Contact the Student Support Case Management team if you are concerned about yourself or another student and don’t know where to turn. SSCM helps connect students with on and off campus resources, provides safety planning, and offers other supports, including consultation, educational workshops, and referral to the STATIS threat assessment team. http://umanitoba.ca/student/case-manager/index.html

University Health Service
Contact UHS for any medical concerns, including mental health problems. UHS offers a full range of medical services to students, including psychiatric consultation. http://umanitoba.ca/student/health/

Student Advocacy
Contact Student Advocacy if you want to know more about your rights and responsibilities as a student, have questions about policies and procedures, and/or want support in dealing with academic or discipline concerns. http://umanitoba.ca/student/advocacy

UM History Student Association (UMHiSA)
UMHiSA is a history undergraduate student run organization that seeks to establish a sense of community for students studying all facets of history, and provide support for them in their academic career. Students interested in fun times, spirited debate, new opportunities, a community of like-minded students, or all of the above, check out UMHiSA on our instagram account www.instagram.com/umhisa_undergrad/ or emailing umhisau@gmail.com

Finally, I would encourage you to come by my office during office hours, or to make an appointment to come by another time, if you require any clarification about assignments or course content. A lecture course can sometimes feel intimidating to students new to the university. I welcome you to come and introduce yourself, and if you are having any problems with an upcoming assignment, come and talk to me and we can work out a solution.
