Course Description:
This course examines the history of Catholicism from 1540 to the present day. The course will consider the varied experiences of the Catholic world during this period, as it became the first global religion and responded to the changing contexts in which it operated. We will examine the ways in which Catholicism responded to the Protestant Reformation as well as the ways in which it re-defined itself over the next centuries. In examining the Catholic Church in historical perspective, we will attempt to understand how the present-day Church was made, and examine what Catholicism’s past can tell us about the world in which live.

Course format:
We meet three times a week throughout the semester. Readings from Thomas Bokenkotter’s A Concise History of the Catholic Church provide the background for exploration and discussion of major issues. Friday classes will be seminars, in which students will examine and discuss primary and secondary source material. Students should come to these seminar classes prepared to engage in class debates and discussions, and to provide detailed analysis of these sources.

Texts (available at the University bookstore):
Craig Harline, Miracles at the Jesus Oak: Histories of the Supernatural in Reformation Europe (Yale, 2003)

The “W” Requirement
Since this is a course that meets the University Senate’s W requirement, students must pass the requirement for written English in order to pass the course.

HIST 2990 Policy on Late Assignments
Assignments submitted after the due date will be considered late if not accompanied by the grant of academic consideration. Late assignments will be penalized at a rate of 5% per day, or 25% per week. Students who are unable to attend a Friday seminar but would like to demonstrate their understanding of the assigned documents are encouraged to submit a brief written summary of their views of the primary readings, no later than one week after the missed class. This can be done no more than once over the course of the term.

The Grade Distribution for this course is as follows:

- A+ 90-100%  B 70-79%  D 50-59%
- A 86-89%  C+ 66-69%  F -50%
- B+ 80-85%  C 60-65%

Voluntary Withdrawal
Two evaluations of your written work will take place before the Voluntary Withdrawal date, March 18, 2020

Grade Appeals
Students who wish to appeal a grade given for term work must do so within 10 working days after the grade for the term work has been made available to them.

Regulation on Unreturned Term Work
Uncollected term work will become the property of the Faculty of Arts and will be subject to confidential destruction.

Plagiarism
The section on “Academic Integrity” of the General Academic Regulations in the online Academic Calendar and Catalog and the Faculty of Arts regulation (online at http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/student_resources/student_responsibilities_integrity.html) reads:
The common penalty in Arts for plagiarism on a written assignment is a grade of F on the paper and a final grade of F (DISC) (for Disciplinary Action) for the course. For the most serious acts of plagiarism, such as purchase of an essay and repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five (5) years from registration in courses taught in a particular department/program in Arts or from all courses taught in this Faculty.

The Faculty also reserves the right to submit student work that is suspected of being plagiarized to Internet sites designed to detect plagiarism or to other experts for authentication.

The common penalty in Arts for academic dishonesty on a test or examination is F for the paper, F (DISC) for the course, and a one-year suspension from courses acceptable for credit in the Faculty. For more serious acts of academic dishonesty on a test or examination, such as repeat violations, this penalty can also include suspension for a period of up to five years from registration in courses taught in a particular department or program in Arts or from all courses taught in or accepted for credit by this Faculty.

Student Resources

Academic Resources
You have access to several important resources to help you navigate your classes and university life more generally. There are writing tutors available to help you with your essays through the Academic Learning Centre (ALC): http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/. The History department will also make a writing tutor available exclusively to History students in the department on one day a week. More information about scheduling, etc., TBA.

The ALC page also has resources to help you with study skills, organization, as well as assistance for students using English as an Additional Language (EAL). Other issues, including accessibility services, workshops, and tips about academic integrity are addressed at the Student Advocacy Services webpage (http://umanitoba.ca/student/resource/student_advocacy/).

All of the above services can also be accessed under the heading of Student Resources on the Student Affairs website: http://umanitoba.ca/student/studentlife/index.html.

History students can also take advantage of the huge range of academic materials (including primary and secondary sources, as well as pages to help with writing and referencing) made available by the History subject librarian, tailored just for you! They are available on the Libraries page at this link: http://libguides.lib.umanitoba.ca/history. Students who need research assistance can also schedule an appointment with a librarian through the website.

Student Counseling Centre
Contact SCC if you are concerned about any aspect of your mental health, including anxiety, stress, or depression, or for help with relationships or other life concerns. SCC
Student Support Case Management
Contact the Student Support Case Management team if you are concerned about yourself or another student and don’t know where to turn. SSCM helps connect students with on and off campus resources, provides safety planning, and offers other supports, including consultation, educational workshops, and referral to the STATIS threat assessment team.
