DEGREE CREDIT

During your first year of university or throughout your degree, you can take courses in over 20 languages offered at the beginner's level to more advanced levels. Many of our students start off having no knowledge in another language; or have taken an introduction language course in high school; or speak it at home but want to advance their skills.

UNIVERSITY OPPORTUNITIES

The university has student clubs which organize foreign movie nights, festivals, and other activities related to one of the languages and cultures. As well, you can take advantage of the many resources in the Language Centre, including a computerized laboratory for the oral practice of the language.

TRAVEL STUDY/EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

Explore other countries with travel study offered by several language departments and /or exchange programs to universities in other countries which can be used for credit towards your degree program.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

In today's global market, the career opportunities for students who have acquired skills in one or more languages are virtually limitless and may give you a significant competitive edge in the job market.

Did you know.... a full six credit hour language course at any level will satisfy the Humanities Requirement?

WHEN YOU LEARN A NEW LANGUAGE YOU CAN GAIN THE ABILITY TO:

- communicate between cultures
- understand historical language change
  - read and write articulately and analytically
- have comprehensive knowledge of grammar and vocabulary
  - organize and memorize detailed information
- have proficiency in phonetics and ability to imitate sounds
