The Manitoba Teachers’ Society and the Faculty of Education are pleased to offer an evening lecture by distinguished critical educator and scholar Dr. Arlo Kempf

The Changing Nature of Teachers’ Work in Neoliberal Times: Educational Change, Social Justice and Inclusion

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 21, 2017 6:00–8:00 PM
Room 224, Faculty of Education

This lecture will address the changing nature of teachers’ work in the context of neoliberal reform in K-12 education in Canada and the US. Drawing on multiple recent studies of teachers and teachers’ work, Dr. Kempf will highlight the relationship between work intensification and educational standardization, as well as the concomitant implications for social justice in K-12 schools.

Arlo Kempf, PhD, is the Associate Director of the Master of Teaching Program, and Assistant Professor, in the Department of Curriculum, Teaching and Learning, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto (OISE/UT).
For more information, contact Dr. Clea Schmidt clea.schmidt@umanitoba.ca

Support for this event has been generously provided by the Faculty of Education, Strategic Research Fund and the University of Manitoba Institute for the Humanities.