

Opening Doors to the Good Things in Life:
Implementing Social Role Valorization
7th International Conference
Winnipeg, Manitoba CANADA
June 6-8, 2018

General information

The 7th International Social Role Valorization (SRV) Conference will be held in Winnipeg, Manitoba Canada June 6-8, 2018. Pre-conference events will take place June 4 and 5. We will post information about the pre-conference events and conference keynote speakers as these are confirmed.

SRV theory, derived from the principle of normalization, was first defined by Wolf Wolfensberger in 1983. Over the past 35 years, many have used SRV theory to guide their work in supporting individuals and families, in education, training and advocacy.

The focus of this conference will be on the implementation of SRV. This is an opportunity for academics, practitioners, human service providers, policy-makers, advocates, educators and trainers, individuals who receive services and their families to come together to discuss and consider the impact and influence that SRV has on their lives and in their work.
