

Evidence of broad professional concern and achievement as well as consistent service to the library and University, or service to the community, where the individual has made an essentially nonremunerative contribution by virtue of special professional/academic competence. This participation or service may be demonstrated by: significant service to the library and the University through participation in library and University policy-making and planning bodies, committees, task forces, etc.; substantial involvement in professional activities and participation in professional organizations.

17.B.4 Librarian

In order to be considered for appointment or promotion to the rank of Librarian the candidate must have a record of outstanding professional accomplishment and performance as an Associate Librarian, including demonstrated initiative, leadership and creativity; a reputation among peers and associates as an authority in his/her field; superior achievements reflecting leadership in the field of service or specialization, recognized beyond the University.

The candidate should have a record of:

Additional graduate degree in library and information science and/or a relevant subject speciality, or relevant experience judged to be of equal value; evidence of outstanding scholarly contributions in the form of widely recognized research, publications and/or presentations.

Outstanding contributions to the library and the University; and to the community and the profession where the individual has made an essentially nonremunerative contribution by virtue of special professional/academic competence. These contributions may be demonstrated by: leadership in provincial, regional, or national professional and/or scholarly organizations; service on library and University policy-making and planning bodies, committees, task forces, etc.; widely recognized commitment to librarianship.

ARTICLE 18. HIRING OF MEMBERS

18.A General Provisions

18.A.1 The primary objective in recruiting is to develop the best possible educational program for students at the University of Manitoba. Except when it is clearly to the disadvantage of the University and its programs, those defined as Canadian at the time of application for a University post shall be hired in preference to those defined as non-Canadian.

18.A.2 For the purpose of this Article, a Canadian is defined as a person who:

18.A.2.1 holds Canadian citizenship, or

- 18.A.2.2 holds permanent resident status, or
- 18.A.2.3 is able to provide proof that he/she is an applicant for permanent resident status from within Canada who has received approval in principle from Citizenship and Immigration Canada and is therefore eligible to hold a valid open work permit authorizing him/her to work pending finalization of his/her application for permanent residence.
- 18.A.3 In keeping with requirements of the Federal Contractors Program, to which the University is committed, the University and the Association agree to the principle of employment equity for women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples and persons with disabilities at the University of Manitoba. This principle ensures opportunities in hiring, promotion and tenure for members of the above groups, and ensures that no systemic barriers exist to the full participation of the above groups in the workplace of the University of Manitoba.
- 18.A.4 Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 18.A.6, whenever a department has at least ten (10) Members of one gender and none of the other gender holding probationary appointments or appointments with tenure, the next available probationary or tenured position in the department as approved by the Vice-President (Academic) and Provost shall, if possible, be filled by hiring a qualified applicant of the gender not represented in the department.
- 18.A.5 Where an unwarranted numerical gender imbalance (the determination of which shall not be inconsistent with the University's Employment Equity Program as approved on February 13, 1990) exists in the composition of the department or library, the department shall, as part of the search procedures:
 - 18.A.5.1 consult with informed men or women of the respective department, library, or discipline in order to identify suitable prospective candidates, and
 - 18.A.5.2 ensure that such candidates are made aware by letter of such vacant positions.
- 18.A.6 The University and the Association agree that the best candidate shall be hired, irrespective of gender. When two candidates are demonstrably equal, and there is an unwarranted numerical gender imbalance in a department or library, the candidate of the under-represented gender shall be offered the position.
- 18.A.7 In the evaluation of candidates for appointment to a position in the bargaining unit, search committees shall take into account career interruptions caused by family responsibilities. Such interruptions shall not be a disadvantage to the candidate.

18.B Search and Advertising

- 18.B.1 The following procedures are intended to apply to appointments to all positions in the bargaining unit except for contingent appointments, leave replacements, renewals and appointments under sections 17.A.6.3,18.D and 34.7.3 and Article 28.

18.B.2 Faculty Participation

- 18.B.2.1 The academic staff members with faculty rank of the department meeting in committee shall recommend to the dean/director the priorities and procedures whereby candidates shall be sought, assessed and recommended for appointment. A reasonable number of academic staff members with faculty rank of a department shall participate in an advisory role in the search process.
- 18.B.2.2 Except as provided in s. 18.D of this Article, a search committee normally composed of five (5) persons (exclusive of the dean/director and any student participation), as follows, shall be appointed by the dean/director:
- 18.B.2.2.1 At least three (3) of those persons appointed to the committee shall be selected from a list of five (5) persons recommended to the dean/director by the academic staff members with faculty rank of the department meeting in committee.
- 18.B.2.2.2 The dean/director or his/her designate shall be the non-voting chairperson of the search committee.
- 18.B.2.2.3 The committee shall be advisory to the dean/director.
- 18.B.2.2.4 There shall be provision for student participation. In the event students do not participate in the search committee's procedures that shall not invalidate the proceedings of the search committee.
- 18.B.2.2.5 At least one faculty member from a related discipline will normally be involved.
- 18.B.2.2.6 There shall be at least two (2) persons of each gender on each search committee wherever possible although there shall always be at least one (1) person of each gender. This shall be exclusive of any student participation.
- 18.B.2.2.7 In the event of:
- 18.B.2.2.7.1 a cross-appointment, or
- 18.B.2.2.7.2 departmental circumstances which do not permit the application of s. 18.B.2.2.1 above, or
- 18.B.2.2.7.3 a faculty/school which is not organized into departments, other procedures, modelled on the above, shall be established by the dean/director.
- 18.B.2.3 The search committee shall provide the dean/director with all information involved in the search process.

18.B.2.4 After the search is completed, the recommendations regarding the appointment shall be forwarded to the dean/director and to the Vice-President (Academic) and Provost before any offer of appointment is made.

18.B.2.5 Members of a department shall be advised when a candidate is visiting.

18.B.3 Librarians' Participation

18.B.3.1 Whenever the filling of a full-time academic librarian's position is authorized, the Director of Libraries shall conduct a search for suitable prospective candidates.

18.B.3.2 Academic librarians meeting in committee shall recommend procedures whereby candidates shall be sought, assessed and recommended for appointment. A reasonable number of academic staff members with academic librarian rank shall participate in an advisory role in the search process.

18.B.3.3 A search committee of six (6) persons shall be appointed by the Director of Libraries.

18.B.3.3.1 At least three (3) of those persons appointed to the committee shall be selected from a list of five (5) persons recommended to the Director of Libraries by the academic librarians meeting in committee.

18.B.3.3.2 The Director of Libraries or his/her designate shall be the non-voting chairperson of the search committee.

18.B.3.3.3 The committee shall be advisory to the Director of Libraries.

18.B.3.3.4 There shall be at least two (2) persons of each gender on each search committee wherever possible although there shall always be at least one (1) person of each gender. This shall be exclusive of any student participation.

18.B.3.4 After the search is completed, the recommendations regarding the appointment shall be forwarded to the Director of Libraries.

18.B.3.5 Academic librarians in a department, section, or regional library, as appropriate, shall be advised when a candidate is visiting.

18.B.4 Advertising

18.B.4.1 All positions approved for external search shall be advertised in electronic and/or print media. Such advertising shall include notice of vacancy in at least one (1) issue of University Affairs, in at least one (1) issue of the CAUT Bulletin, if appropriate, Feliciter, and, if appropriate, at least once in a Canadian society or association journal. The notice of vacancy shall also be listed in the University of Manitoba Bulletin. Deans and Directors shall monitor this process. In exceptional circumstances, a departure from this procedure may be authorized by the Vice-President (Academic) and Provost who shall inform the Association in writing of such authorization within ten (10) working days thereof.

- 18.B.4.2 All advertisements for any one (1) position shall be worded as similarly as possible in all publications and shall be consistent with s. 18.A.3.
- 18.B.4.3 All advertisements shall contain wording in accordance with legal requirements of Human Resources and ~~Social~~ Skills Development Canada.
- 18.B.4.4 All advertisements shall spell out clearly the areas of competence and requirements of the position. If Canadian experience or background is required, this should be noted.

18.B.5 Preferential Treatment to Canadians

- 18.B.5.1 The search committee shall ensure that preferential consideration be given to Canadians who meet the qualifications of the advertised position, ~~prior to consideration of non-Canadians~~ in accordance with HRSDC applicable Government of Canada immigration requirements.
- 18.B.5.2 The search committee shall ensure that at least the top qualified Canadian (as defined in s. 18.A.2 above) is offered an interviewed for tenured or probationary appointments. In exceptional circumstances, a departure from this procedure may be authorized by the Vice-President (Academic) and Provost.

18.B.6 Recommendations for Appointment

The dean/director shall inform the search committee and department head, as appropriate, whether he/she accepts or rejects the advice of the search committee or department head. In the event that the dean/director rejects the advice of the search committee or department head his/her reasons shall be given to the search committee or department head, as appropriate.

18.C Appointment

- 18.C.1 Upon approval of the dean/director, an offer of appointment may be made to the approved candidate. Any such offer shall be made on the understanding that the appointment is subject to the approval of the Board of Governors and, where legally required, Human Resources and ~~Social~~ Skills Development Canada.
- 18.C.2 The dean/director shall ensure that the type of appointment, the duration of the appointment, the rank and salary, and any other terms and conditions pertaining to the appointment as provided in this Agreement are clearly set out in all offers of appointment.
 - 18.C.2.1 An offer of appointment for a term appointment at the rank of lecturer may provide that, contingent upon the approved candidate's satisfactory completion of the Ph.D. in his/her discipline (but not later than two (2) years from the date of the appointment):

- 18.C.2.1.1 his/her rank may be changed to assistant professor;
- 18.C.2.1.2 his/her type of appointment may be changed to probationary; and
- 18.C.2.1.3 his/her base salary rate may be increased by an amount specified in the offer.
- 18.C.3 A copy of this Agreement shall be provided by the Association and enclosed with all such offers of appointment. The Association shall also provide a letter, acceptable to the University, advising the approved candidate to be in contact with the Association and providing contact information. The Association shall enclose this letter in all such copies of the Agreement. University approval of the letter shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 18.C.4 A copy of the final letter of offer for all newly appointed Members shall be sent to the Association within twenty-five (25) working days of approval by the Board of Governors.
- 18.C.5 Upon completion of the hiring process set forth in this Article, a copy of the "Summary of Applications for Full-Time Appointments" form completed by the chair of the search committee shall be sent to the Association. The form includes the type of appointment, the number of male and female applicants, the number of male and female interviewees, the number of male and female appointees, the composition of the search committee and special efforts utilized to attract applications from both males and females. Nothing in this section shall require the University to provide the names of applicants or interviewees.

18.D Spousal Recruitment

- 18.D.1 Where, in accordance with the provisions of this Article:
 - 18.D.1.1 the candidate recommended for appointment has a spouse who is seeking an academic appointment, and where the candidate's acceptance of an appointment is contingent upon his/her spouse obtaining an appointment, the University may depart from the procedures for search and advertising specified in this Article vis-a-vis the spouse to facilitate the recruitment of the candidate; or
 - 18.D.1.2 a Member has a spouse who is seeking an academic appointment, and where the Member's remaining at the University is contingent upon his/her spouse obtaining an appointment, the University may depart from the procedures for search and advertising specified in this Article vis-a-vis the spouse to facilitate the recruitment of the candidate.
- 18.D.2 Where section 18.D.1 is to be invoked, the following procedures shall apply:

- 18.D.2.1 The dean/director of the faculty/school in which the spouse would be seeking an appointment must give his/her consent to consideration of the spouse's appointment in that faculty/school. Prior to making this decision, the dean/director shall seek the recommendation of the department head of the department in which the spouse would be seeking an appointment and the academic staff members with faculty rank of the department meeting in committee.
- 18.D.2.2 Where the dean/director gives his/her consent pursuant to s. 18.D.2.1, a search committee formulated in accordance with s. 18.B.2 shall review the application, interview the applicant, and, having regard to the department priorities as described in s. 18.B.2.1, make a recommendation which shall be forwarded to the dean/director and the Vice-President (Academic) and Provost before any offer of appointment is made.
- 18.D.2.3 Where the spouse would be seeking an appointment as an academic librarian, the Director of Libraries must give his/her consent to consideration of the spouse's application for an appointment in the Libraries. Prior to making this decision, the Director of Libraries shall seek the recommendation of the academic staff with academic librarian rank meeting in committee.
- 18.D.2.4 Where the Director of Libraries gives his/her consent pursuant to s. 18.D.2.3, a search committee formulated in accordance with s. 18.B.3.3 and following the procedures of s. 18.B.3.4 and s. 18.B.3.5 shall review the application, interview the applicant and make a recommendation which shall be forwarded to the Director of Libraries and the Vice-President (Academic) and Provost before any offer of appointment is made.
- 18.D.2.5 The provisions in sections 18.B.6 and 18.C.1 through 18.C.5 shall apply.
- 18.D.3 The Association shall be notified in writing within ten (10) working days of s.18.D being invoked. The notice shall include the names of both individuals, types of appointment, rank and department.

18.E Selection of Department Heads Academic Administrators within the Bargaining Unit

~~The selection of department heads shall be in accordance with the procedures recommended by Senate to the Board of Governors as of the effective date of this Agreement.~~

The following provisions do not apply to the appointments of acting administrators, or to their deputies (e.g. associate or assistant department head).

18. E.1 Academic Staff Members with Faculty Rank

The selection of department heads, whether by internal or external search, shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Article. In considering candidates for the position, the search committee shall automatically consider the incumbent as a candidate for renewal of appointment unless he/she declines to be considered. For clarity, internal applicants shall be eligible to apply where there is an external search.

18.E.1.2 Academic Staff Members with Academic Librarian Rank

The selection of section heads, department heads and coordinators, whether by internal or external search, shall be in accordance with the provisions of this Article. For clarity, internal applicants shall be eligible to apply where there is an external search.

ARTICLE 19. ACADEMIC FREEDOM; FACULTY RIGHTS, DUTIES, AND RESPONSIBILITIES; DISCIPLINE; APPOINTMENTS AND TENURE

19.A.1 Academic Freedom

The common good of society depends upon the search for truth and its free exposition. Academic freedom in the University in teaching, research and the dissemination of knowledge is essential to these purposes. The university faculty member is, therefore, entitled to freedom in carrying out research and in publishing the results thereof, freedom in carrying out teaching and in discussing his/her subject, and freedom from institutional censorship. Academic freedom carries with it the responsibility to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the scholarly obligation to base research, teaching and the dissemination of knowledge in a search for truth.

19.A.1.1 This Article applies to professors, associate professors, assistant professors and lecturers in the bargaining unit (hereinafter referred to as "faculty members"). It does not apply to heads of departments or their associates or assistants in their administrative capacities, though it does apply to the appointments of these persons as faculty members. Where any matter hereinafter referred to is the subject of a specific Article in this Agreement, the specific Article shall prevail.

19.A.2 Faculty Rights, Duties and Responsibilities

19.A.2.1 Faculty members shall have the right to express opinions and to participate by means of their representatives in procedures as provided for in the appropriate Article concerning such matters as: the appointment and promotion of faculty members; the granting of tenure to faculty members; the selection and review of heads of departments and academic administrators (but not their deputies or associate officers); and the granting of merit awards.

19.A.2.2 In addition to their civil rights, faculty members have certain rights, duties and responsibilities that derive from their positions as teachers and scholars working within the University community. Faculty members shall act reasonably, fairly
