Winnipeg Event:
The Right To Food in Canada
(Live stream)

On March 4th, the UN Special Rapporteur on the right to food presents the report of his mission to Canada by webinar from Geneva. The webinar will be live-streamed at the University of Manitoba. All are welcome to attend.

Riddell Faculty Seminar Presents:
Date: March 4th, 10:30-1:00pm
Includes introductory speakers & informal post-discussion
Room 110 Dafoe Library
(near service Desk)
No RSVP required for this public event.

The national web-based Conversation between the Special rapporteur and you, the public, takes place at 11 a.m. Central Time on March 4th. The rapporteur will present his report, followed by a period of questions and comments from the audience, and then we will host a local discussion.

Join us for a dialogue on food as a human right and what that means for Canada. Come and talk with others about how together we can work to ensure this right to food in Canada. Explore issues regarding food insecurity, obesity, sustainable agriculture and food systems, and the rights of First Nations communities to healthy and affordable Food and the findings of the report on Canada is to the UN Council on Human Rights in Geneva.

Questions?: Contact Shirley Thompson: S_thompson@umanitoba.ca