1. The Professorial Stream Requirements (Lecturer, Assistant Prof, Associate Prof, Full Professor)
   a. MD or PhD or equivalent relevant professional degree or experience and demonstrated commitment to education and scholarship.
   b. Duties must include:
      i. Scholarship and/or Scholarly Activity (Research)
         "Scholarship and scholarly activity" include activities that, through rigorous inquiry, systematically support innovations in the research, teaching or practice areas that are significant to a profession or discipline and the university, can be documented, can be replicated or elaborated upon by others, and are peer reviewed through various methods. Scholarship is the generation, application, dissemination and advancement of knowledge in a variety of roles and setting.

      ii. Teaching
         "Teaching" is broadly defined to include all presentations (lectures, seminars, tutorials, individual and group discussion, supervision of student work or other means) by which students in degree or non-degree programs sponsored by the University derive educational benefit. It is recognized that teaching can occur in undergraduate, graduate, post-graduate and other University programs or through University continuing education and continuing professional development programs and activities. Teaching necessarily includes direct student contact and time allocated to related administrative and support activities.

      iii. Service and Administration
         "Service and administration" includes internal and external service activities arising from a faculty member’s role as a researcher, teacher, clinician and/or administrator at the University of Manitoba or for external agencies. Activities should be considered for their value to an academic program, a profession, or a clinical program. “Service” may be formally identified as paid service to the University, Faculty, College, Department or Section (related to remuneration as part of employment), or as professional obligations, and service to organizations, professions, the community or the public (usually unpaid or voluntary). Community or public service may also include activities internal and external to the University that involve a non-remunerative role accorded through an individual’s expertise.
2. The Instructor Stream Requirements (Instructor I, Instructor II, Senior Instructor)
   a. Master’s degree or equivalent relevant degree or experience and demonstrated commitment to teaching and service.
   b. The assigned duties must include teaching and service (or less frequently, teaching and scholarship), but do not include all three academic pillars (i.e., teaching, service and scholarship/research).

3. The Research/Professional Affiliate Stream Requirements
   a. PhD or equivalent qualifications and experience.
   b. The Research Affiliate is an individual who normally holds a full-time academic appointment with the University of Manitoba or with another university and who, as a result of his/her research expertise and achievements desires an affiliation with a Research Centre/Institute for mutual benefit to both the Research Centre/Institute and the individual. There is no salary associated with the appointment. The individual is expected to contribute to and share in the research activities of the Research Centre/Institute but will not normally have assigned duties associated with the appointment. In the event that duties are assigned, they must be of a very limited nature and have the approval of the home faculty/school dean/director.

The Professional Affiliate is an individual who is primarily employed by an organization, institution or company other than the University and who, as a result of that employment, desires an affiliation with the University that would be of mutual benefit to both the University and the individual. There is no salary associated with the appointment. The individual is expected to contribute to, and share in, the research activities of the University but will not normally have any duties associated with the appointment. In the event duties are assigned, they must be of a very limited nature.
