DID YOU FILE YOUR INCOME TAX?

Even if you make no money, you should file a tax return each year. If you do not file your taxes you CANNOT get government benefits such as:

Federal Income Tax Credits:

GST Credit – a tax-free quarterly payment that helps individuals/families with low and modest incomes to offset all or part of the GST or HST they pay.

Working Income Tax Benefit – a refundable tax credit for working people with low incomes.

Canada Child Benefit (CCB) – A tax-free monthly payment to help support your children under age 18. To get the CCB, you have to file your income tax return every year, even if you did not have income in the year. If you have a spouse or common-law partner, they also have to file a return every year.

You can apply by completing the form RC66-Canada Child Benefits Application and sending it to Canada Revenue.

You can get a copy of the form by calling 1-800-387-1193 or online at:

<http://www.cra-arc.gc.ca/E/pbg/tf/rc66/README.html>.

You can send your completed child and family benefits forms by mail to the Winnipeg Tax Centre.

*Let Canada Revenue know if your marital status changes by sending in form RC65-Marital Status Change. This will make sure your CCB and GST benefits are correctly calculated based on your new situation. Get a copy of this form on line at www.cra-arc.gc.ca/E/pbg/tf/rc65/README.html or by calling 1-800-387-1193.

Provincial (MB) Income Tax Credits:

Personal Tax Credit – a credit for low-income Manitobans and their dependents. For more information:

EMPLOYMENT & INCOME ASSISTANCE

The Employment & Income Assistance (EIA) program provides financial help to Manitobans who have no other way to provide for their basic needs. For people able to work, EIA can help you get employment by providing supports.

You can apply for EIA by calling 204-948-4000 inside Winnipeg or 1-877-812-0014 outside Winnipeg. For more information visit:

www.gov.mb.ca/fs/eia

EIA provides a range of benefits to help meet needs like:

Basic assistance – help with food, clothing, household needs

Rent Assist – Rent Assist is a monthly shelter-related financial benefit to help low-income Manitobans who pay rent in the private market. It is available to households on EIA who have shelter costs and low-income Manitobans renting in the private market who are not on EIA. www.gov.mb.ca/fs/eia/rent_assist.html

For those receiving EIA – living in unsubsidized housing, the Rent Assist benefit is automatically included with the monthly EIA payments. Eligibility is assessed when you apply for EIA and is based on the number of family members, and whether utility costs (e.g., heat, electricity, water) are included in the rent. www.gov.mb.ca/fs/eia/rentassist_facts.html

For those who do not receive EIA – living in eligible private rental or room and board spaces, a monthly benefit may be available and will vary depending on the annual income of each adult (in the household). To apply for non-EIA Rent Assist, go to: www.gov.mb.ca/fs/eia/pubs/rentassist_appform.pdf or call Provincial Services at 204-945-2197 in Winnipeg or toll-free: 1-877-587-6224 to have an application form mailed to you.

CHILDREN & FAMILY

Register a Manitoba birth – Vital Statistics Agency – Information on how to obtain a birth certificate and social insurance number for your child, and how to apply for the Canada Child Benefit.

http://vitalstats.gov.mb.ca/birth_registration.html

You may be eligible for other benefits in addition to the monthly Canada Child Benefit:

Manitoba Child Benefit Program – Monthly financial assistance to low income families who are NOT on EIA. Also provides help with some of the costs of children’s prescription eyeglasses. 1-800-563-8793 or download an application: www.gov.mb.ca/fs/eia/mcb.html

Healthy Baby Program – A two-part program that supports pregnant women, new parents and their babies through:

- The Manitoba Prenatal Benefit – Financial benefit that helps pregnant women buy healthy food. You must live in Manitoba and have a family income of less than $32,000 to qualify.
- Healthy Baby Community Support Programs – Free drop-in groups for pregnant women/their partners/parents with babies under the age of one to get information and support for a healthy pregnancy and baby. www.gov.mb.ca/healthychild/healthybaby or call 204-945-1301 in Winnipeg or Toll-free at 1-888-848-0140 elsewhere.

Manitoba Early Learning and Child Care – for help in paying eligible day care costs for low-income parents. Find the online subsidy application at: www.gov.mb.ca/fs/childcare/families/childcare_subsidies.html or call 204-945-0286 (in Winnipeg); Toll-free: 1-877-587-6224 or email: cdcsubsidy@gov.mb.ca

Canada Education Savings Program – The Government of Canada can help you save for your child’s education after high school by putting money into a Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP) that can be used to pay for expenses related to full-time or part-time studies in a trade school, CEGEP, college, university or in an apprenticeship program. Opening an RESP is more than just to build savings; studies indicate that an RESP can help strengthen a child’s aspirations of pursuing and completing a higher education.

CHILDREN & FAMILY

The Government of Canada offers the Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG), which consists of a basic amount of 20% on the first $2,500 in annual personal contributions to an RESP. Additional amounts of CESG of 10% and 20% on the first $500 of annual personal contributions into an RESP are also provided available for children from middle- and low-income families.

If your child is born after 2004, they may be eligible to receive the Canada Learning Bond (CLB). The CLB provides an initial payment of $500 in an RESP, plus additional payments of $100 every year of eligibility, up to age 15, for a maximum of $2,000 to children from low-income families. No personal RESP contributions are required to receive the CLB.

Canadians who get the skills and training they need are more likely to get a good job. The CLB will help Canadian youth reach their full potential. For more details, visit <https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/student-financial-aid/education-savings.html>.

PERSONS LIVING WITH DISABILITIES

If you are not able to earn income because of health issues or a disability, there are some government programs that might help you:

Canada Pension Plan – Disability Benefits – If you worked and contributed to CPP you may be able to get a disability pension until you turn 65. Call 1-800-277-9914 to have an application kit mailed to you or apply at: www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/publicpensions/cpp/cpp-disability-benefit/apply

Employment and Income Assistance – Disability Benefits – Persons with disabilities receive additional EIA benefits, including the Income Assistance for Persons with Disabilities (IAPD) of $105 monthly. If prescribed by a health practitioner, persons with disabilities may be eligible for:

- Special diets due to medical problems
- Coverage for transportation or phone costs due to medical needs
- Additional health-related/medical supplies/equipment and not covered under any other program

Go to www.gov.mb.ca/fs/eia or read the brochure: www.gov.mb.ca/fs/eia/pubs/eia_disability.pdf for more details.

You might qualify for additional federal tax benefits – see information below or call 1-800-387-1193:

Disability Tax Credit – This is a tax credit that can reduce your taxes or be transferred to a spouse/partner to reduce theirs. The Canada Revenue Agency must approve the credit before you can make a claim. Find more information at: www.cra-arc.gc.ca/tx/ndvdl/sgmnts/dsblts/dtc/menu-eng.html

Working Income Tax Benefit – Disability Supplement – This additional refundable amount tops up the working income tax benefit if you are also eligible for the disability tax credit. Find more information at: www.cra-arc.gc.ca/tx/ndvdl/tpcs/ncm-tx/rtrn/cmpltng/ddctns/lns409-485/453-eng.html

Refundable Medical Expense Supplement – This refundable credit can be claimed on the tax return of working individuals with low incomes and high medical expenses. Find more information at: www.cra-arc.gc.ca/tx/ndvdl/tpcs/ncm-tx/rtrn/cmpltng/ddctns/lns300-350/330-331/menu-eng.html

Registered Disability Savings Plan – This program allows you to save for the future without losing any of your EIA-D benefits. The government will match your savings up to 300%. Even if you have a low income and cannot put money in your plan, the government may give you up to $1,000 each year. Find more information at www.cra-arc.gc.ca/tx/ndvdl/tpcs/rdsp-reei/menu-eng.html

SENIORS & 55 PLUS

Canada Pension Plan – Retirement (CPP-R) – if you worked and paid into CPP, you can start getting a retirement pension as early as age 60. CPP is paid monthly based on how much you paid into the plan.

Old Age Security (OAS) – Anyone who has lived in Canada for at least 10 years can receive OAS starting the month after they turn 65. If you have lived here 40 years or more you should get the full monthly pension. Apply for the OAS six months before your 65th birthday (if you can be automatically enrolled, Service Canada will send you a notification letter the month after you turn 64).

Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) – A non-taxable benefit to top up OAS for low-income seniors. If you are receiving the OAS pension, apply for your GIS three months before your 65th birthday. Monthly amount depends on the annual income from the previous tax year. Eligibility for GIS is reviewed each year when you file your tax return; it is automatically renewed for seniors who qualify.

Spousal Allowance/Allowance for the Survivor – Extra benefits paid to a 60-64 year old spouse/common-law of an OAS recipient or to a survivor. The monthly amount depends on yearly household income and is reviewed each year when you file your tax return. Automatically renewed for those who qualify.

For more information on above programs, contact Service Canada at 1-800-O-CANADA (1-800-622-6232) or online at:

www.servicecanada.gc.ca

55 Plus – Manitoba program provides financial supplement to low-income seniors 55 years or older. Payment made four times a year based on income on the previous year's tax return. 55 Plus benefits – available if you receive only the health care benefits portion of income assistance.
