Department of Clinical Health Psychology is pleased to present

10th Annual Research Day
Thursday, April 18, 2019
1:00 – 4:30 PM
Theatre C, Basic Medical Sciences Bldg

1:00 - 2:30 Rapid Fire Presentations - CHP Faculty and Students

Dr. Gillian Alcolado: Brief large-group CBT compared to waitlist for patients awaiting anxiety disorders assessment and treatment
Caitlin Blaney, MA: Anxiety in rheumatoid arthritis: preliminary results for the impact of an online mental health intervention
Dr. Pamela Holens: A randomized controlled trial of an online chronic pain treatment for military, police, and veterans
Julia Riddell, MA: Association between water fluoride, urinary fluoride and ADHD in Canadian youth
Dana Sheshko, B.A. B.Ed: Multi-method adherence measurement in an evidence-based parenting program
Jordana Sommer, B.A. (Hons): Mental health sequelae in the perioperative period: dissociation, delirium & posttraumatic stress
Dr. Robin Westmacott: Prospective cohort study examining psychosocial outcomes for transition-related medical interventions
Dr. Norah Vincent: RCT effectiveness of online treatment for insomnia in cancer survivors & evaluation of treatment-related side-effects

2:30 - 3:00 CHP Poster Session and Refreshments - Buhler Atrium

3:00 - 4:30 Keynote Address

Research is a Team Sport: Focus on PTSD & suicide prevention

Dr. Jitender Sareen, B.Sc., M.D., FRCPC
Professor and Head, Department of Psychiatry
Max Rady College of Medicine
University of Manitoba

Keynote Learning Objectives:
- To learn the importance of building high quality interdisciplinary teams to develop & conduct research
- To learn about traumatic stress and PTSD research
- To learn about suicide risk and prevention strategies

For MBTelehealth contact 940-8500 option 4 then option 2
All Are Welcome
umanitoba.ca/medicine/clinical_health_psych/