CHURCHILL — A.G.S. — northern pipelines' barriers and revenue in the northern area of the province. But it has not been able to find an alternative plan for the north, even if it would mean abandoning the idea of a plant near or in the north through a heavy crew, the project never got off the ground.

The plane was not for fire crews but emergency crews. A plane was needed to help with the problems there.

Arabs' anger blazes over mosque fire; Israeli plans probe

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel was braced for a new round of cross-border violence today as the government was reported to be planning a major probe into last week's fire in a mosque. Israeli and Palestinian sources said the fire, which killed at least 42 people and injured dozens more, was set by terrorists. Officially, the Israeli government said it would not comment on the reported probe. But Palestinian sources said the fire was set by Israeli settlers. The Israeli army said it had evidence indicating that the fire was set by Palestinian militants.

Hope pleases Joy

Bob Hope is usually the professional who displays the most luster in his role. But he had a field day today, as he performed on stage, wearing a special costume designed to resemble a computer. The costume included a large, glowing display screen which showed various computer-related images, and a series of buttons and switches that could be pressed to control the display. The audience was fascinated by the performance, and several members of the audience, including children, were able to interact with the display screen.
