

Faculty of Human Ecology Emergency Loan Application

To be eligible for consideration for emergency financial assistance you must:

1. Have obtained a passing grade (D or better) in all courses taken in the previous academic session.
2. Have documentation (e.g., notice of government loan assessment letter or other sponsorship letter) indicating that you will be receiving sufficient funding to meet your educational and living costs for the academic session.
3. Have repaid all outstanding emergency aid from previous academic sessions.

Please note the following:

Failure to repay the loan assistance will result in a hold being placed on your file, which will mean you cannot register for the next academic session, will not be able to access library or computer services, or will not be permitted to graduate from the Faculty of Human Ecology.

This personal information is being collected under the authority of the University of Manitoba Act. It will be included as part of your student record in the Faculty of Human Ecology. Additional relevant information may be sought from other units of the University. If you have any questions about the collection of information, please contact the FIPPA/PHIA Coordinator's Office (474-8339), University of Manitoba Archives & Special Collections, 331 Elizabeth Dafoe Library, Winnipeg, MB R3T 2N2. [April, 2005. H: Students]

Completion of all fields on this application is mandatory in order to have your request assessed. You must be a full-time student to apply.
