

Nancy Black Memorial Entrance Scholarship in Human Ecology

If you are newly admitted to the Faculty of Human Ecology (into year 2 of any Faculty programs), and have a grade point average of 3.5 or higher, you are eligible to apply for a scholarship of at least $1,000 by writing a letter outlining your extra-curricular involvement. Deadline to submit your letter is Sept. 30.

The terms of the award are as follows:

1. You have completed University 1, or equivalent, with a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.50;
2. You enter the Faculty of Human Ecology in fall term;
3. You show evidence of extracurricular involvement (e.g., community services, volunteer positions, music, drama, art, athletics, student government) and you write about these achievements in a one page document to the Chairperson of the Student Standing Committee of the Faculty of Human Ecology (c/o Academic Advisor), room 209 Human Ecology Building (General Office).