Anh T. Tran is a Master student of Supply Chain Management working under the supervision of Dr. Adolf K.Y. Ng and Dr. Bruno Silvestre. Her research interest lies in the area of sustainable supply chain management, more specifically the incorporation of environmental and social aspects to supply chain. She aspires to gain in-depth knowledge, broaden her horizon and build up expertise in academic projects. Tran joins the University of Manitoba Transport Institute (UMTI) as a Student Associate in September 2017.