China has become the leading country of origin for international students. Returned graduates, known as returnees (or ‘haigui’ in Chinese) enjoy a favourable social status and play important roles in society. This paper examines the impact of appointing returnees as CEOs in Chinese listed firms.

Friday, March 28
10:00 am
537 Drake Centre

GUEST SPEAKER:
Dr. Wenxuan Hou
Senior Lecturer of Finance
University of Edinburgh Business School
Edinburgh, UK