

SYMPOSIUM SPONSORS

The International Symposium on Rheumatic Diseases in Indigenous North American Populations (INA) ... from Molecules to Communities Chairs, Dr. Hani El-Gabalawy and Dr. Brenda Elias, the Symposium Planning Committee, and the Departments of Internal Medicine and Community Health Sciences gratefully acknowledge the support from the Canadian Arthritis Network, the Canadian Institutes of Health Research and the CIHR Institute of Musculoskeletal Health and Arthritis, and the unrestricted educational grants from our industry sponsors listed below.

■ Canadian Arthritis Network <http://www.arthritisnetwork.ca>

The Canadian Arthritis Network (CAN) is “a not-for-profit organization that supports integrated, trans-disciplinary research and development. CAN is the single point of contact that links 170 leading Canadian arthritis researchers and clinicians, 45 Canadian academic institutions, The Arthritis Society, the Canadian Institutes of Health Research's Institute of Musculoskeletal Health and Arthritis, pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies, and government.”

■ Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) <http://www.cihr.ca>

CIHR is “the premier health research funding agency in Canada with the mandate to excel, according to internationally accepted standards of scientific excellence, in the creation of new knowledge and its translation into improved health for Canadians, more effective health services and products and a strengthened Canadian health care system.”

■ Institute of Musculoskeletal Health and Arthritis (IMHA)

<http://www.cihr.ca/e/8603.html>

The Institute of Musculoskeletal Health and Arthritis(IMHA),“one of the thirteen institutes under the umbrella of CIHR, is the champion and primary source of funding for Canadian health research across six foci, arthritis, musculoskeletal rehabilitation, bone, skeletal muscle, skin and oral health”
