

RISKS & MANAGEMENT OF TUBERCULOSIS SYMPOSIUM

Hosted by the Department of Medical Microbiology
Faculty of Medicine, University of Manitoba

Tuesday, February 21, 2012

9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

*Theatre B, Basic Medical Sciences Building
745 Bannatyne Avenue*

9:00-9:10 a.m.	OPENING REMARKS	Dr. Meenu Sharma National Reference Centre for Mycobacteriology Public Health Agency of Canada And Adjunct Professor Department of Medical Microbiology University of Manitoba
9:10-10:10 a.m.	"Stopping TB in Canada –What Do We Need to Do?"	Dr. Edward Ellis Medical Consultant, City of Ottawa Public Health; former Manager, Tuberculosis Prevention and Control, Public Health Agency of Canada - Ottawa
10:10-10:25 a.m.	COFFEE BREAK
10:25 -10:55 a.m.	"TB in North – Global Issues"	Dr. Pamela Orr Professor Departments of Internal Medicine, Medical Microbiology and Community Health Sciences University of Manitoba
10:55-11:25 a.m.	"Evaluating Immune Responses to Tuberculosis to Improve Diagnostics and Identify at Risk Populations"	Dr. Sandra Kiazzyk National Reference Centre for Mycobacteriology Public Health Agency of Canada
11:25-11:55 a.m.	"Partnering with First Nations to Address Environmental, Genetic and Cultural Determinants of TB"	Dr. Linda Larcombe Assistant Professor Departments of Internal Medicine and Medical Microbiology
11:55-12:00 noon	CLOSING REMARKS
12:00 noon	LUNCH - J.A. Hildes Concourse	