Dr. A. G. Rogers, in memory of his wife, has established an award at The University of Manitoba. This award will be available to a student of high musical and academic promise who enters first year of the Bachelor of Music degree programs. Preference will be given to a student whose major practical study area is voice or, failing that, to a performer of one of the orchestral instruments.

In the first year of award, 1980, the value will be $100.00; and in subsequent years, the value will be the annual earnings on the fund supporting this award.

The selection committee will be the Faculty of Music scholarship committee.
