The family of Harvard Smith has established an endowment fund in his memory at The University of Manitoba to support a scholarship in the Faculty of Music. Harvard Smith was a tuba player, composer, and school teacher in Saskatchewan.

A scholarship initially valued at the lesser of $1,000.00 or the available annual income from the fund shall be offered annually to a student who:

- has completed at least one year of full-time study in the Faculty of Music at The University of Manitoba;
- has achieved a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0;
- is enrolled full-time in the academic session in which this award is tenable in the Faculty of Music (either in the B.Mus or Integrated B.Mus./B.Ed. Program);
- has shown aptitude and demonstrated ability on trombone, euphonium, or tuba.

In the future, if earnings on the fund permit, the value and/or number of scholarships supported by this fund may be increased.

The selection committee shall be named by the Dean of the Faculty of Music.
