Amount: 70% of available annual interest

Number: 1 award

Deadline:

Application: None needed

A fund has been established at The University of Manitoba by Mrs. Daisy Paulley to support an annual prize in the Faculty of Music. The gift is made in memory of her parents, Frank Day and Elizabeth Day (nee Wilson), who were both active in the music community and had particular interests in church music.

The prize shall be valued at up to 70 percent of the interest on the fund (about $100.00 initially) and is to be offered annually to the student who:

- has completed the third year of studies as a full-time student (minimum 60 percent course-load) in the Faculty of Music;
- is studying the organ or choral music;
- has achieved good academic standing (minimum G.P.A. of 3.0);
- is actively involved in the extra-curricular activities in the Faculty of Music.
- will be entering the final year of the program in the academic session in which this award is tenable.

Preference will be given, where possible, to a student who demonstrates an active interest in church music.

The selection committee shall be named by the Dean of the Faculty of Music.
