THE MARGARET TOBIN BURSARY FOR SINGLE PARENTS IN SOCIAL WORK

Margaret Tobin has established an endowment fund ($10,000) at the University of Manitoba to encourage single parents to pursue post secondary education in social work. The Manitoba Scholarship and Bursary fund will be used to an undergraduate student who:

1. Is enrolled in either the Bachelor of Social Work or the Inner City Bachelor of Social Work ACCESS program
2. Has achieved a minimum GPA or 2.0
3. Is a single custodial parent with a dependent child or children
4. Has demonstrated financial need on the standard University of Manitoba bursary application

In any year that no student meets the selection criteria the bursary may then be offered to either:

1. An undergrad student who:
   - Is enrolled part-time or full time in the Faculty of Social Work, in the Northern Bachelor of Social Work program;
   - Has achieved a minimum DGPA or 2.0;
   - Is a single custodial parent with a dependent child or children;
   - Has demonstrated financial need on the standard University of Manitoba bursary application form
2. A graduate student who:
   - Is enrolled part-time of full-time in the Faculty of Graduate Studies, in the Master of Social Work degree program;
   - Has achieved a minimum DGPA of 3.0;
   - Is a single custodial parent with a dependent child or children;
   - Has demonstrated financial need on the standard University of Manitoba bursary application form

The bursary is not open to students completing the Bachelor of Social Work by distance education.

The selection Committee for this award shall be the Standing Committee of the Faculty of Social Work.

Please use the U of M General Bursary Application to apply,
