

CLIMATE CHANGE AND THE KIVALLIQ REGION

Community Meetings – March 6th and 7th
7:30pm – 9:30pm

Siniktarvik Hotel

Coffee and Snacks

March 6th, 7:30pm

“Impacts of Climate Change on Wildlife and Marine Transportation in the Kivalliq Region”

Panel Discussion

- Flora Beardy – Elders’ views of habitat, animals and water in York Factory
- Joe Kaludjak – Wildlife and climate change in the Kivalliq Region
- Miriam Fleming – Traditional Knowledge and climate change in Hudson Bay
- Alan Johnson – Climate change and transportation in Hudson Bay

March 7th, 7:30pm

“Impacts of Climate Change on Kivalliq Communities”

Guest Lecture by:

Dr. David Malcolm, Director and Research Scientist
Canadian Circumpolar Institute, University of Alberta

Climate Change Impacts on:

- Permafrost
- River systems
- Roads
- Precipitation
- Temperature, etc.

*These community meetings are being hosted by the Hudson Bay
Oceans Working Group*