

ArcticNet Meets its Northern Partners

Monday, March 29

Community Reception and Feast
7:00 – 11:00 pm
Community Hall

Welcome and Introduction to the HBOWG: Brock Junkin
Country Foods Community Feast

Presentations:

- Climate change in Hudson Bay - David Barber

Activities

- Skills Competition in Inuit Games and Throat Singing

Tuesday, March 30: Siniktarvik Hotel

9:00 – 10:30AM

1. Welcome – Brock Junkin
2. Opening prayer – Jerome Tattuinee
3. Review purpose of meeting and agenda – Brock Junkin
4. Members' comments

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

5. Tapaminamahk Koyask Mantou Kaki Minokoyahk “We have to take good care of what the Creator gave us” – Stewart Hill and Jocelyn Cheechoo
6. What is known about Hudson Bay:
 - Hudson Bay Traditional Ecological Knowledge and Management Systems Study – Miriam Fleming
 - Hudson Bay Ecosystem Overview – Bruce Stewart

12:30 – 1:30 Lunch

9. ArcticNet overview (Projects 3.0, 3.1, 3.2) – David Barber
10. Theme 3 Presentations:
 - Building community capacity in biological monitoring and research in the Kivalliq (Peregrin falcons and caribou) (Project 3.6) - Mitch Campbell
 - Health of fish and marine mammals (Project 3.4) – Robie MacDonald
 - Climate change and human health (Project 3.5) – Daniel Martin

Mission Statement of the HBOWG

To develop an integrated management plan for Hudson Bay to promote stewardship by all interested parties. The focus is on the western coastal area, recognizing the linkages to the rest of the Bay.

Life in Nunavut
5:30 - 10:00 pm
Siniktarvik Hotel

Country Foods

Presentation:

- The Bounty of the Sea and the Land – Ollie Ittinuar

Activities

- Arctic Fashion Show
- Dog-sledding

Wednesday, March 31: Siniktarvik Hotel

9:00 – 10:30

10. Theme 3 Presentations (Cont'd):

- Community connections to the land in Arviat (Project 3.6) – Sherrie Blakney
- Marine mammals and climate change (Project 3.8)- Steve Ferguson and Magaly Chambellant
- How we do things in Nunavut – Laura Kowmuk

11. Hudson Bay marine ecosystem – David Barber

12. ArcticNet community based monitoring – Robert Hodgson

13. ArcticNet Theme 2: People, land and freshwater in the changing Arctic– Milla Rautio

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

14. ArcticNet Theme 4: Adapting to change in the Canadian Arctic: knowledge transfer, policies and strategies – Jaime Dawson

15. Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit in the Management, Research and Monitoring of National Parks – Vicki Sahanatien

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch

16. Members' Comments

- What have you learned from this meeting?
- How can we work together for a healthy Hudson Bay?

17. Closing Comments – Brock Junkin

18. Prayer – Ollie Ittinuar

19. Adjourn

Mission Statement of the HBOWG

To develop an integrated management plan for Hudson Bay to promote stewardship by all interested parties. The focus is on the western coastal area, recognizing the linkages to the rest of the Bay.