

Agenda

Tuesday, September 9

Planning for Protected Areas in Hudson Bay

Community Reception
6:00 – 10:00 pm
Siniktarvik Hotel

- Welcome and Introduction to the HBOWG: Brock Junkin
- Planning for protected areas in Hudson Bay:
 - National perspective – Helen Fast
 - Kivalliq slide show – Randy Miller
- Arctic Fashion Show – Nunavut Sustainable Development
- Community Discussion

hosted by the Hudson Bay Ocean Working Group and Nunavut Sustainable Development

* * * * *

Wednesday, September 10

Siniktarvik Hotel

9:00 – 11:00

1. Welcome – Brock Junkin
2. Opening prayer – Flora Beardy
3. Review agenda – Brock Junkin
4. Highlights from our last HBOWG meeting in Arviat (video)
6. Review minutes from March 4-6 meeting – Brock Junkin
7. Indigenous knowledge guidelines for the HBOWG – Miriam Fleming
8. Building healthy communities in Hudson Bay – Sherrie Blakney
9. Hydro and Hudson Bay watershed – Roy Bukowsky and Don MacDonell

Coffee Break (11:00 – 11:15)

10. Planning for protected areas in Hudson Bay
 - How the Inuit Impacts and Benefits Agreement (IIBA) applies to protected area planning in Hudson Bay – Paul Fraser
 - Importance of York Factory to the Cree – Marion and Flora Beardy
 - Lessons from Qilalugaq in the Beaufort Sea - Bert Spek

Mission Statement of the HBOWG

To develop an integrated management plan for Hudson Bay to promote stewardship by all interested parties. The focus is on the western coastal area, recognizing the linkages to the rest of the Bay.

Hudson Bay Ocean Working Group
September 9-11, 2003
Siniktarvik Hotel, Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

Lunch (12:30 – 1:30)

10. Planning for protected areas in Hudson Bay (Con't)
- Kivalliq conservation areas – Mike Settington
 - Manitoba perspective on protected area planning – Helios Hernandez

Coffee Break (2:30 – 2:45)

- Parks Canada perspective – Vicki Sahanatien
- A systems approach to protected area planning in Hudson Bay - Miriam Fleming
- Marine Environmental Quality program and protected areas planning in Hudson Bay – Steve Newton
- Using indigenous knowledge to enhance the value of parks and protected areas – Micheline Manseau

Evening Activities

5:15 – 10:00 pm

11. A walking tour of Ijiraliq (Meliadine) River Territorial Historic Park, including
- Traditional foods;
 - Drum dancer; and
 - Throat singer

hosted by the Hudson Bay Ocean Working Group and Nunavut Sustainable Development

* * * * *

Thursday, September 11

8:30 – 9:30am

12. Body of association of indigenous knowledge experts – David Alagalak
13. Seal research in Hudson Bay – Steve Ferguson
14. Vegetation mapping in the Kivalliq: Application to industrial development – Brock Junkin
15. Discussion groups (9:30 – 11:30) including coffee break
- Planning for protected areas
 - Planning for indigenous knowledge
 - Planning for large scale projects
16. Discussion group updates (11:30 – 12:00)
17. Next meeting: March 2004

Mission Statement of the HBOWG

To develop an integrated management plan for Hudson Bay to promote stewardship by all interested parties. The focus is on the western coastal area, recognizing the linkages to the rest of the Bay.

Hudson Bay Ocean Working Group
September 9-11, 2003
Siniktarvik Hotel, Rankin Inlet, Nunavut

- Theme: Research in Hudson Bay – Steve Newton
18. Closing prayer – Marion Beardy
 19. Adjourn

Lunch (1:00 – 2:00)

ArcticNet Team Project 3.6

Theme: People Engaging Local, Scientific and Government Partners in Ocean Co-Management

Teleconference: September 11, 2003

3:00 pm

Participants

Siniktarvik Hotel, Rankin Inlet

David Alagalak, Flora Beardy, Marion Beardy, Sherrie Blakney, Geoff Cowie, Helen Fast, Miriam Fleming, Micheline Manseau, Jeffrey Maurice, Steve Newton, Vicki Sahanatien

Natural Resources Institute, Winnipeg

Fikret Berkes, Mina Berkes, Don Cobb, Iain Davidson Hunt, Anne Kendricks, Darren Thomas

Mission Statement of the HBOWG

To develop an integrated management plan for Hudson Bay to promote stewardship by all interested parties. The focus is on the western coastal area, recognizing the linkages to the rest of the Bay.