

Working Together for a Healthy Hudson Bay

Traditional Knowledge Focus Group Draft Agenda

Participants:

David Alagalak
Flora Beardy
Jim Beardy
Sherrie Blakney
Terry Dick
Helen Fast
Miriam Fleming
Elisa Hart
Stewart Hill
Jeffrey Maurice
Steve Newton
Audrey Roburn
Darren Thomas
Sue Cosens

President, Kivalliq Wildlife Board
Band Office, York Factory First Nation
Future Development, York Factory First Nation
Graduate Student, University of Manitoba
Professor Zoology, University of Manitoba
Integrated Management, Fisheries and Oceans Canada
Secretariat, Municipality of Sanikiluaq
Heritage Resource Officer, Inuvialuit Cultural Resource Centre
Fox Lake First Nation
Nunavut Oceans Programs, Fisheries and Oceans Canada
Integrated Management, Fisheries and Oceans Canada
Fisheries Management, Fisheries and Oceans Canada
Graduate Student, University of Manitoba
Science, Fisheries and Oceans Canada

Regrets:

Steven Atkinson
Earl Baddaloo
Holly Cleator
Jim Noble

Director of Wildlife, Government of Nunavut
Director of Environmental Protection, Government of Nunavut
Species at Risk Biologist, Fisheries and Oceans Canada
Executive Director, Nunavut Wildlife Management Board

Wednesday, June 25

Introductions and Laying the Groundwork

9:00 – 10:30

1. Welcome – Miriam and Steve
2. Opening prayer - Flora Beardy
3. Meeting purpose – Steve
4. Introductions and round table comments - All
5. Meeting objectives for Day One - Miriam

Coffee Break (10:30 – 11:00)

6. How the HBOWG can build a relationship of trust with holders of Traditional Knowledge - David
7. How Traditional Knowledge is used for decision making in York Landing and the Wapusk National Park - Flora

Lunch (12:30 – 1:30)

8. How the HBOWG can use TK/IQ to plan for a healthy Hudson Bay – Jeffrey
9. Using archival oral history to learn about marine resources - Elisa
10. Using traditional knowledge to understand Hudson Bay – Steve and Miriam
11. Day One wrap up - Steve

Purpose Statement of the TK Protocol

“To use traditional values to build a relationship of trust between the holders of traditional knowledge and the Hudson Bay Ocean Working Group for providing and using indigenous and local knowledge in the affairs and activities of the working group.”

Dinner (6:00 pm)

Pasta La Vista (66-234 Donald)

Thursday, June 26

Drafting the Protocol

9:00 – 10:30

12. Round table reflections on Day One

13. Meeting objectives for Day Two – Miriam

14. Drafting Articles of the TK Protocol

A. Access to and provision of Traditional Knowledge

- Which term (TK, TEK, IQ, LK) should the HBOWG use?
- Who are the holders of Traditional Knowledge?

Coffee Break (10:30 – 11:00)

B. Use of Traditional Knowledge

C. Science and Traditional Knowledge

- Should we integrate science and Traditional Knowledge? If so, how?

Lunch (1:00 – 2:00)

D. Ownership and Access to Documented Traditional Knowledge Information

- Who can/should use and access documented Traditional Knowledge?
- How will permission be obtained from Traditional Knowledge holders?

E. Incentive Measures

F. Benefit Sharing

- When and how should Traditional Knowledge holders be compensated?

15. Next Steps

16. Round table reflections on the Meeting

17. Closing Prayer - Flora

18. Adjourn

Purpose Statement of the TK Protocol

“To use traditional values to build a relationship of trust between the holders of traditional knowledge and the Hudson Bay Ocean Working Group for providing and using indigenous and local knowledge in the affairs and activities of the working group.”