The Helen Glass Centre for Nursing was the first building on the campus of the University of Manitoba to be dedicated by a member of the British Royal Family. Princess Anne, who was visiting Winnipeg for the 1999 Pan-American Games, officially dedicated the building that summer. The walkway in front of the building was named the Princess Royal Walk as a tribute to her.