Investor’s Group Athletic Centre

The Investor’s Group Athletic Centre was constructed in preparation for the 1999 Pan-American Games in Winnipeg. The venue was used for the volleyball, basketball, and rhythmic gymnastic competitions. It was the first major infrastructure project that the city of Winnipeg gained from hosting the Pan-Am Games.