Jessie C. Russell Bursary

A fund has been established in the name of Jessie C. Russell from the estate of Irene Alexander Russell. The fund, currently valued at about $20,000, is to provide bursaries to students studying music at The University of Manitoba.

The available annual interest* on the fund (or about $1,100 at current interest rates) is to be offered each year to students who:

- (1) are enrolled as full-time students (minimum 24 credit hours) in an undergraduate program in the Marcel A. Desautels Faculty of Music;
- (2) have achieved good academic standing with a minimum sessional awards G.P.A. of 3.0 on the regular session most recently completed;
- (3) have demonstrated financial need on the standard University of Manitoba bursary application form.

Preference shall be given, whenever possible, to a student with an alto (mezzo-soprano or counter-tenor) singing voice.

The selection committee shall be named by the Dean of the Marcel A. Desautels Faculty of Music.
