2017 DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

Dr. Lisa Bourque Bearskin
Associate Professor, Thompson Rivers University

Dr. Bearskin began her teaching career working in Alberta where she developed and delivered Indigenous nursing initiatives. As the past President of the Aboriginal Nurses Association of Canada, and in her current academic role, she continues to provide leadership that enhances understandings of Indigenous nursing knowledge and social determinants of health.

MONDAY, MAY 8, 2017

Opening prayer by Elder Marlene Kayseas

Moving forward: Calls to Re-Concili-Action – What needs to happen now?

Panel Discussion  |  10:00 AM - 12:00 PM  |  Location – Room 260, Helen Glass Centre for Nursing
Panel members: Dr. Lisa Bourque Bearskin, Ms Rhonda Campbell, Ms Caroline Chartrand, Ms Crystal Cook, Ms Melanie MacKinnon, Ms Wanda Phillips Beck

Creating Space for Indigenous Knowledge in Health Care

Presentation  |  1:30 - 3:30 PM  |  Location – Room 260, Helen Glass Centre for Nursing

A light lunch will be provided at noon. Click here or go to http://bit.ly/2naXVpj to RSVP.